WILLKIE MAKING VISIT TO STATE

Speaks In Erie And Sharon During Day — Again Assails New Deal Policies

By WALTER KIERNAN

ABOARD WILLKIE TRAIN, Erie, Pa., Oct. 24.—Rapier phrases, staccato sentences hurriedly grouped themselves on paper today as Wendell Willkie prepared a fast, white-hot retort to President Roosevelt's first announced political speech of the presidential campaign.

Until an early hour this morning Willkie read and re-read the text of the president's speech as he dictated the reply he made over the red network of the National Broadcasting company from the rear platform of his train in Erie at noon today.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

W. C. Price, of Southern California, a former New Castle resident, has received word from Swansea, Wales, that his sister's home there has been blown to bits by German bombers. Fortunately, the family was at a neighbor's visiting, and no one was injured. However, when they returned, they were appalled to find there was nothing left of their home.

With the resurfacing completed on most of Croton avenue, travel on that street is a much improved pleasure. Likewise the appearance of the street is greatly benefitted. Work on Wilmington avenue has also worked a notable improvement. Now, if we could get East Washington street, Highland avenue, and a few other main traveled streets resurfaced, it wouldn't be unappropriate.

With an officer watching the parking meters continuously in the downtown section, a lot of violators of the parking meter regulations are being apprehended. Another group of offenders that should get some attention are those drivers who parked in street sections permanently marked as "parking forbidden".

Trees of the public square have been taken over recently as the night roosting place for a large flock of birds, apparently making a temporary stop-over in New Castle on the journey south.

Three of the four curb lights in the west section of the public square were not burning last night, it is reported to Pa Newc.

With all of the road improving going on over the state on main traveled highways it appears to Pa Newc that one much traveled route needing widening is the Butler road between New Castle and Dixie Inn and from Portersville to Butler. That route is more congested by traffic than most any other two-lane highway route in the district.

Hitler And Franco Confer On Spain's Mediterranean Role

By HECTOR LICUDI
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MADRID, Oct. 24.—Chancellor Hitler and Spanish Generalissimo Francisco Franco may meet again today to complete their decision on Spain's role in the effort of the axis powers to reorganize Europe and expel Britain from the Mediterranean and Africa.

Meeting face to face for the first time, the two dictators held a lengthy conference on the French-Spanish frontier behind the curtained windows of a Spanish railroad coach. Some reports said they met again last night and would continue their talk today.

The Hitler-Franco conference, which followed the Fuehrer's talk with French Vice Premier Pierre Laval, was announced in an official Spanish communique which said the meeting was conducted "in an atmosphere of friendship and cordiality."

(Authoritative indications in Berlin were to the effect that Spain is being brought into close co-operation with the axis program but is not expected to enter the war against Britain, for the present at least.

(German sources said Spain's aspirations for return of Gibraltar and French Moroccan territory would "eventually materialize.")

In Madrid political quarters linked the Hitler-Franco talks with the Hitler-Laval conference and assumed that the question of Spanish collaboration with the axis campaign against Gibraltar and in the western Mediterranean and West Africa was thoroughly canvassed.

Unfavorable Weather Keeps Down Bombing Attacks On London

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Two air raid alarms sounded in the London area today and one huge formation of German bombers struck at England, but the combination of British defenses and bad flying weather kept most of the Nazi planes at a distance from the capital.

The big bombers formation was followed by nine grouped Messerschmitt fighters, all flying at a high altitude. Soon three explosions were heard in a rural area—the only marks left by the Nazi swarm.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Unfavorable flying weather and active British defenses once more conspired during the night and early today to keep Nazi raiders away from the center of London and give the capital a further respite from heavy bombing attacks.

The night was one of the quietest the city has experienced since the aerial "blitzkrieg" began, although

Almira Home Donation Day Huge Success

Annual Ingathering Of Food For Almira Home Is Held Wednesday; Many Generously Respond

An occasion observed annually is the ingathering of food for the Almira Home on East Washington street, a residence for aged ladies, and this years' "Donation Day" which fell on Wednesday met with great success, chairman, Mrs. Walter W. Braham, announces.

It is estimated, that over 500 jars of home canned fruits were received which is only one of the many items that figured in making the day so successful. Grove City donated 179 quarts of fruit and Slippery Rock donated 111 quarts of canned goods. Over 800 pounds of sugar were received, upwards of 15 bushels of potatoes, six bushels of apples and many other items. The contributions filled one room completely and part of another. Also, donations of money were received. Sharing with New Castle, was Sharon, Butler, Grove City and Zelienople.

Organizations giving as a whole, were the Hershey Auxiliary and the Twentieth Century Bible class of the First Presbyterian church, the United Workers class of the First Baptist, the Highland United Presbyterian, the First U. P., the Savannah Methodist church and others.

Mrs. Braham had on her committee, Mrs. James D. Crawford, Mrs. Ray Robison, Mrs. Robert Armstrong, and Mrs. C. E. Trainor. They were aided by Mrs. George Balph and Mrs. George Harbison.

Mrs. Rose Sloan, is matron of the Home.

Joseph F. Travers Injured In Crash

County Commissioner And Wife Suffer Injuries In Peculiar Accident

County Commissioner Joseph F. Travers and wife of 125 Hillcrest avenue were injured in a peculiar automobile accident at North Mercer street and Euclid avenue, Wednesday afternoon, shortly after 3 o'clock. Both are in the New Castle hospital, where they were removed in an ambulance. Mr. Travers has a fracture of the nose, slight concussion of the brain and chest injuries, while Mrs. Travers is suffering from bruises and shock.

Mr. Travers had been confined to his home by illness and because of the fact that yesterday was such a nice day, had gone out with his wife. They were returning home, enroute north on Mercer street, when Mr. Travers suffered a fainting spell due to his weakened condition. His automobile left the road and went across the front of the yards of William G. Daker and Michael G. Bender, after which it went through a vacant lot and struck the rear end of the home of William Moser, who runs a store at the corner of Euclid avenue and North Mercer street.

The automobile seemed to gain momentum, due to the fact, perhaps, that the weight of Mr. Travers' body was thrown forward with his foot still on the gas pedal. The car struck the back of the building with considerable force, the auto being badly damaged.

Mr. Moser, Ray Earl, who was passing the scene, Harold M. Shaffer and others who were attracted to the scene, removed Mr. and Mrs. Travers from the wrecked auto and they were taken to the hospital. It was stated at the hospital this morning that both were much improved today.

Boy Swallows Red Cross Pin

Tony Venditto, aged 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Venditto, 107 Arch street, is confined to the New Castle hospital as a result of having swallowed a Red Cross button Wednesday.

The boy, a fourth grade student at Mahoning school, informed his teacher that he had swallowed something. He was taken to the hospital where an X-ray showed that he swallowed a button.

The button has not been removed as yet.

No Secret Treaty Says President In Philadelphia

Charges Some Of Campaign Statements Made By Willkie Are Untrue

CAMPAIGN ENTERS WHIRLWIND STAGE

President To Make Four More Campaign Speeches Before Election

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The 1940 presidential campaign swung into a rip-snorting finish today as President Roosevelt shed his gloves and accepted the challenge of his Republican opponent, Wendell Willkie, to debate the issues.

If the speech delivered by Mr. Roosevelt in Philadelphia last night to a wildly enthusiastic crowd was any criterion, the order of the day from now to November 5 is "no holds barred."

"I will not pretend I find this an unpleasant duty," declared the president in telling of his determination to brand many of the statements of his opposition as deliberate misstatements of fact. "I am an old campaigner and I love a good fight."

Assails Willkie Charges

The chief executive, in the unanimous opinion of those who have campaigned with him in 1932, 1936 and this year, was in top fighting form at Philadelphia as he smashed at Willkie's charges the New Deal was leading the country into war, had entered into secret foreign alliances, had failed to reduce unemployment and had stagnated business.

Throwing a few counter-punches, Mr. Roosevelt suggested that "certain techniques of propaganda, created and developed in dictator countries have been imported into this campaign" by the Republicans "for the purpose of filling the minds and hearts of the American people with fear."

Deep shafts were aimed at some of Willkie's major charges in a single paragraph of the president's speech, which was frankly political, and for which the Democratic national committee had paid all charges, both radio time and travel expenses. He summed up as follows:

Says Statements False

"But it is entirely a different thing for any party or any candidate to state, for example, that the president of the United States telephoned to Mussolini and Hitler to sell Czechoslovakia down the river;

West Edison Avenue Home Fire Damaged

Damage of around $250 was caused by fire this morning at 9:15 o'clock in the home of Lewis P. Doutt, 211 West Edison avenue, believed to have started from defective wiring.

The fire had gained quite a start when discovered by a man who was walking across to the dump west of Canyon street.

B truck and second ward firemen answered a telephoned alarm, and quickly brought the blaze under control. The wall was burned thru in the back of the house under the roof, but was checked before it had gotten inside the house.

DISTRICT DEPUTY OF ELKS TO COME HERE NOVEMBER 13

New Castle Elks will get an up-to-the-minute report on the nation-wide patriotic activities of their order when Ward M. Knoblow, Meadville, district deputy grand exalted ruler for the Elks in this area, pays an official visit to the local lodge Wednesday evening, Nov. 13.

With their fraternal brothers the country over, New Castle members have joined for an intensive concentration on national defense affairs. Only last week the lodge announced a new national defense committee, headed by Dr. Arthur B. Foster.

Knoblow will bring here the national message of the grand exalted ruler of Elkdom.

The New Castle lodge also plans to initiate a special John J. Pershing class of candidates before December 1, in accordance with grand lodge aims.

Lodge affairs were discussed at a regular meeting last night, Verne Carr presided in the absence of Exalted Ruler Wilbert J. Chapman.

Navy Here Recruits Three Six-Year Men

Mother Is Fatally Shot; Father Badly Wounded By Daughter's Suitor

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 24—A romance that at one time held parental approval was climaxed today with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Ann Hartstein, 47, and the near-fatal shooting of her husband, Sigmund, 55, in their palatial Squirrel Hill home.

Louis Kleinberg, 30, was quoted by Chief of County Detectives Jerry L. Deasy as admitting that he shot the couple after he had protested that he had to meet their daughter, Evelyn, 24, in secret. Originally, he said, they had favored the romance, but had suddenly "cooled off."

Kleinberg insisted that Hartstein had pulled a revolver on him when he requested a "show down" conference on the objections, but Hartstein, from a hospital bed, maintained that he and his wife were shot as they walked into their home.

Kleinberg said he managed one of Hartstein's hardware stores for a while, but that he quit after he was told to stay away from Evelyn. He claimed the Hartsteins disapproved of their dating after he had been picked up and questioned in a Pittsburgh case with which he had no connection.

Hartstein, in West Penn hospital with a bullet wound in the abdomen, insisted someone fired from a darkened dining-room as he and his wife returned home last night. Mrs. Hartstein was struck in the chest and head by bullets, while Hartstein was hit in the stomach. A watch carried in his vest pocket deflected the bullet and reduced the amount of injury, hospital attaches said.

Roll Call Plans Get Under Way

Advanced Gift Committee Meets In Hoyt Home Wednesday Evening

Roll call plans of the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross, were furthered at a meeting of the advanced gift committee in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Crawford Hoyt, of Winter avenue, Wednesday evening, when tremendous enthusiasm in the coming campaign was shown.

Chapter Chairman Ralph F. Davis presided, and introduced Norman E. Clark, roll call chairman, who in turn called upon Miss Thyra Fulton, Special roll call representative of the American National Red Cross, and executive director, Miss Margaret F. Bodenstein, who spoke on the Red Cross program and policy for Lawrence County.

Active solicitation for the advanced gifts will not be started until November 2, after the close of the Community Chest campaign, it was announced.

Forty Hour Week Law Is Effective

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—An estimated 182,000 workers in Pennsylvania were affected today by the start of the 40-hour work week under the federal wage-hour law.

Wage-hour authorities said that the number of workers now covered by the law in this state is 1,280,100 wage earners.

The change to 40 hours last midnight from the 42-hour work week for 182,000 workers will mean additional leisure, or overtime pay at the rate of time and one-half.

Report 400 Italian African Troops Are Killed In Battle

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Four hundred Italian African troops were left dead on the field of battle after a terrific encounter with a British Sudanese armored car patrol, it was reported today.

Meeting in the wooded and hilly area between Kassala and Tessenei in the Sudan, the British unit immediately came to grips with the Fascist battalion, it was said.

James Y. Carson Hurt This Morning

Has Miraculous Escape When Auto Is Struck By Freight Train Near Edenburg

James Y. Carson, aged 50, of 212 Wallace avenue, who is employed with the Burton explosives division of the American Cyanamid & Chemical Corp., just this side of Edenburg, had a miraculous escape from death, when his automobile was struck by an eastbound Pennsylvania freight train on Route 551, between Edenburg and the Burton plant, around 8 o'clock this morning. He is in the Jameson Memorial hospital, where it was stated that his injuries are not of a serious nature.

The roadway and railroad tracks were shrouded in fog this morning, it is stated, and Carson was unable to notice the approaching train, which struck his car just back of the middle, hurling it more than ten feet to the side of the road. He was removed from the machine, which was badly wrecked, and taken to the hospital in an ambulance, where it was found he had sustained several broken ribs and injuries to his back.

Boughter Draws No. 1 In First City Board

Charles Donald Boughter, 29, is the number one registrant of draft board number one of the city of New Castle. In the assigning of numbers in the board's records Mr. Boughter drew number one although this has no bearing upon his position in the draft call. He resides at 207 Holton street, Sixth ward, is married.

The registrant who is registered as number two was born, coincidentally enough on Armistice Day, 1918, the day when the first world war finished. He is Michael John Apeccili, 417 Duquesne street, and was born in New Castle. He is single and employed at the National Pants company.

Number three is Kenneth Leon Book, 31, 132 Main street, married.

The board, consisting of Chairman H. A. Wilkison, Secretary Chester C. Sweezy, and David S. Pyle is meeting in an all day session today assorting cards and getting cards of other districts to them.

A. Lewis Conn has been named as chief clerk of the board. Conn is a veteran of the A. E. F. and served with the 28th Division. He is former national commander of the Society of the 28th Division and former post commander of Perry S. Gaston Post, No. 343, American Legion.

Sensational Rumor Is Heard France May Seek To Launch Peace Move

BULLETIN
(International News Service)

BERNE, Oct. 24.—As rumors spread that France may launch a move to bring peace to Europe, Marshal Henri Petain, chief of the French government, today was reportedly enroute from Vichy to meet Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, presumably in Paris.

BULLETIN
(International News Service)

BERNE, Oct. 24.—In a move designed to pave the way for an axis winter blitzkrieg against Great Britain in the Mediterranean, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler is asking Spain and France to turn over strategic naval and air bases to the axis powers, according to reports received here today.

Spain is also being asked to permit the transit of German mechanized forces through Spanish territory for an attack on Gibraltar.

In addition France is being asked to cede Alsace-Lorraine to Germany and Nice to Italy as well as granting both those powers colonial concessions.

In return for these concessions, which in the case of France are being requested in terms little short of outright demands, Hitler holds out promises of a bright future for both Spain and France in the axis plan for a "new order" in Europe.

Spain is being promised the return of Gibraltar as well as spoils of war in North Africa.

TOKYO, Oct. 24—Japanese naval planes have won "complete command of the Burma road," according to dispatches received in Tokyo today.

The newspaper Nichi Nichi said Japanese planes damaged one bridge so severely it would take several months for repairs. A Domei news agency report from Hong Kong said another large suspension bridge had been destroyed.

(Reports from Chungking said traffic on the Burma road has not been affected by Japanese raids designed to cut the line of supplies.)

Draft Quotas Will Not Be Reduced

Enlistments Not Credited

Will Not Be Credited Against Quotas Until After June 30, 1941

SAY ALLOWANCES MADE IN QUOTAS

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24—Gov. Arthur H. James disclosed today that local draft quotas will not be reduced this year regardless of the number of voluntary enlistments.

Governor James announced that he had received a communication from National Draft Director C. A. Dykstra informing him that enlistments will not be credited against quotas until after June 30, 1941.

(Editor's Note: The announcement by the governor officially confirmed a story to the same effect carried exclusively in Pennsylvania by International News Service on September 30, more than three weeks ago.)

"Allowances Made"

"The state quotas tentatively estimated last week make liberal allowances for volunteers up to June 30 based on recruiting expectations of the army, navy and marine corps," Dykstra advised Governor James. "Therefore, enlistments will have no effect on the estimated quotas for the early calls. Some adjustments will be necessary as accurate figures replace estimates to complete the 800,000 total of selective service trainees for 1941."

A tentative quota of 61,522 has been set for Pennsylvania for the year ending June 30, 1941. It is estimated that of this number approximately 2300 men will be called up on November 18 when the first call for 30,000 men will be issued, or one draftee for each 500 men registered.

May Volunteer

The national draft director informed the governor that any man registered for selective service may enlist voluntarily in the army, navy or marine corps, or any of their organized reserves, up to the time he is ordered to report for the start of his year's training.

Such enlistments will ultimately be credited against the quotas established for the state, but not until after June 30, 1941, said Dykstra.

Aside from enlisting in any of the armed forces, prospective trainees may volunteer for selective service training "out of turn". They may request to be placed at the head of the list for their area and if found to be otherwise qualified will be placed for call ahead of those who have earlier order numbers.

Meanwhile, with the national drawing scheduled for next Tuesday, state draft officials warned local boards that they must "positively" complete the serial numbering of their registration cards by the end of this week. Some have already completed this phase of their work, but the majority have not.

CONCESSIONS ARE DEMANDED FROM FRANCE AND SPAIN

signed to bring about French collaboration with the "new order" on the European continent.

Return of the French government to Paris is expected shortly.

Mme. Petain, wife of Marshal Henri Petain, chief of state of the French government, is understood to have returned already to Paris to prepare for her husband's return.

Nearing Completion

There are growing indications of a closer rapprochment of views between France and Germany. Hints are not lacking that France's transition from a British to a continental viewpoint, especially in regard to foreign policies, is nearing completion.

French opinion, especially governmental opinion, appears to be turning more and more to the Pan-European conception of continental organizations under axis guidance.

Meanwhile, official quarters continued to emphasize the importance of the negotiations now underway between France and Germany.

May Launch Peace Move

Vichy, Oct. 24.—A sensational rumor that France may launch a new peace offensive on behalf of the axis powers was current in diplomatic quarters here today.

The rumor spread as Vice-Premier Pierre Laval met Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler in Paris for a second conference on France's role in the "new order" in Europe.

According to the rumor, the peace offensive may be launched as soon as Germany's present negotiations with France and Spain have been satisfactorily concluded.

France, it was intimated in diplomatic quarters, may act as an intermediary to try to effect a peace settlement between Great Britain and the axis powers.

If Hitler does not want a continuation of the war, it was felt that France would be in an excellent position to launch the peace offensive.

Final Encirclement

Berlin, Oct. 24.—"Final encirclement" of England by the axis powers is now in full swing as a result of Chancellor Hitler's conferences with French Vice Premier Pierre Laval and Spanish Generalissimo Francisco Franco, authoritative German quarters asserted today.

They said the fuehrer's newest moves, drawing France and Spain into the axis camp as non-belligerent partners, have left British Prime Minister Winston Churchill little choice of counter-maneuvers.

About all Churchill can do, as the Germans see it, is to stage "political counter-sallies, reinforced by military threat and gestures against the affected regions."

The Germans made no secret of their belief that the chances of British success in any such maneuvers are microscopically small.

intense flashes of gunfire on the outskirts occasionally lighted the sky.

Two Alarms

There were two alarms during the night, the first ending about 2 a. m. (8 p. m. Wednesday, E. S. T.) and the second terminating around 7:30 a. m. (1:30 a. m., E. S. T.) after only slight activity although distant anti-aircraft fire and the drone of planes were heard.

Virtually no one left the underground shelters between the two alarms, London's 250th and 251st since the war began.

For the most part during the hours of darkness the raiders reverted to their old "nuisance" tactics, gliding in over sections of London and then roaring out at top speed. A few high explosive and oil (incendiary) bombs were dropped.

Weather over the straits of Dover remained unfavorable for flying today. Rainclouds gathered over the sea, which was whipped by a cold northeast wind. As the morning progressed, however, a heavy mist shrouding the straits partially fitted and visibility improved.

"I have not the slightest interest in debating the issues of 1932. I want to see the issues of 1940 discussed and I want to discuss them face to face if I can have that privilege.

"As I listened to his speech, I thought we were in the campaign of 1932 because he discussed no other issues, nothing about the great issues before the American people in 1940.

"As I listened to the glowing description given by the third term candidate of the prosperous condition of the United States I wondered how, under such ideal circumstances, there could be any such thing as an indispensable man."

Willkie heard part of the president's speech between his own New York engagements last night and just before making his major speech at the annual forum of the New York Herald-Tribune. It was that audience which got his immediate reaction to the president's speech.

New Deal Strengthens Grip

At the Herald-Tribune forum and at the "no third term day" rallies in the Bronx and at downtown Manhattan center, Willkie charged that the same processes which wrecked European democracies were at work in the United States with President Roosevelt as dictator.

The New Deal, he charged, was strengthening its grip on corrupt political machines through use of patronage and these machines were stealing the elections. America, he declared, was still in the toils of depression and the New Deal's alibi was to ask for still more power.

"European dictators have followed a familiar pattern," Willkie said. "They found their opportunity in economic distress and widespread unemployment — conditions which have always followed excessive government spending. To meet those conditions, they demanded emergency powers. Having secured those powers they suspended all constitutional rights; reduced the legislature to a rubber stamp; packed the judiciary, and won for themselves and their followers a perpetual term of office.

"We fail to see that the identical process which wrecked the liberties of Europe, has been going on here in America.

"Although it may not be immediately apparent, the pattern is ominously familiar."

Declared 67 Emergencies

Since taking office, Willkie said, the New Deal has declared 67 emergencies and utilized each to assume more extraordinary power. Mr. Roosevelt, he said, has asked and obtained from congress 20 "blank check" appropriations totaling $16,000,000,000. He also has been given power to name the members of 135 federal administrative bodies.

"I say that in a democracy, the concentration of power in anybody's hands, be he saint or sinner, is unwholesome and improper," Willkie asserted.

"By the judicious use of federal patronage, the New Deal has strengthened the grip of corrupt political machines upon our cities. And these machines, in turn, are throwing their enormous weight into the present election in an effort to deliver to the New Deal the electoral vote of some of the biggest states in the union.

"The concentration of power in America has hurt every democracy and helped every rising dictator," Willkie charged.

"Democracy cannot survive under conditions of prolonged depression. Depressions are the very soil in which dictatorships take root and grow to power."

All the powers Mr. Roosevelt and the New Deal have assumed have failed to solve the depression, Willkie asserted.

NO SECRET TREATY SAYS PRESIDENT IN PHILADELPHIA

or that the unfortunate unemployed of the nation are going to be driven into concentration camps; or that the social security funds of the government of the United States will not be in existence when the workers of today become old enough to apply for them; or that the election of the present government means the end of American democracy within four years. They know, and I know, and we know, that all of these statements are false."

The president returned to the national capital for a three day stay in the course of which he will map out his replies to what he termed "the more fantastic misstatements" of his carefully unnamed opponent.

Four More Engagements

He has four more major speaking engagements scheduled — Madison Square Garden in New York City on October 28, the Brooklyn Academy of Music on November 1, the Cleveland auditorium on November 2, and a final Hyde Park radio appeal on November 4—together with reserved time on the air for the night of October 30 which he may or may not fill personally.

The second swing into Philadelphia was his last bid apparently for the 36 electoral votes of Pennsylvania. Before the Convention Hall speech, however, he had made a rear platform address at Wilmington, Del., and asked for the three electoral votes of that small state, and ventured for the first time in 1940 into New Jersey, with its 16 votes. A tour of Camden took care of the latter.

Claims Falsehoods

Mr. Roosevelt minced no words as he struck back at what he said was an effort to repeat over and again "falsehoods, with the idea that by constant repetition and with no contradiction, the misstatements will finally come to be believed."

Asserting that the Republicans' "worst bombshell of fear" had been the accusation that he and Secretary of State Cordell Hull had secretly negotiated foreign alliances and agreements, he said:

"I give you this most solemn assurance; there is no secret treaty, no secret obligation, no secret commitment, no secret understanding in any shape or form, direct or indirect, with any other government, or any other nation in any other part of the world, that might or could in any way involve this nation in any war or for any other purpose."

TRINITY CHURCH PARTY HELD WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Delightful hospitality was extended to a group of guests Wednesday evening, in the rectory of Trinity Episcopal church on Falls street, when Mrs. P. C. Pearson, wife of the Rev. P. C. Pearson, rector, and Mrs. J. W. Flansburg, entertained, jointly, at the second of the series of card parties, scheduled in behalf of the church.

Eight tables of bridge competed for honors, and the occasion proved one of the most enjoyable social functions on the October church calendar. Those winning prizes in the various contests, included Mrs. J. C. Colgan for contract bridge, Mrs. Wilbur McKibben for auction bridge, and Mrs. William Evans, for 500.

In conclusion, the hostesses, aided by Mrs. James L. Gibson and Mrs. I. Miller, co-chairmen of the Party Series Committee, together with several other women present, served a most delicious repast.

Interest is growing in the parties for Trinity church, and it is announced, the next of this nature, will take place on Thursday, November 14, in the home of Mrs. Harry Davis, 1105 Highland avenue.

Rainbow Board

Members of the Advisory board of New Castle Assembly No. 1, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, will meet in the home of Mrs. Orville Potter of 201 Hillcrest avenue, Friday evening, for the monthly business and social meeting of the board.

MRS. RUHL SPEAKS TO CONSERVATION GROUP

At the initial meeting of the Conservation Department of the Woman's club held in the form of a "silver tea" Wednesday afternoon in the Winter avenue home of Mrs. L. W. Grossman, the guest speaker, Mrs. Marcia Ruhl, of "Ruhl Gardens" in Ashtabula, O., gave a most interesting and illustrative talk on "Gourds."

Twenty-five members and friends were present, including Mrs. Lawrence Platt of Geneva, O., and Mrs. Ruhl. Mrs. Vennor Bright, department chairman, presided and welcomed new members. Mrs. Russell Shields was appointed as secretary for the year, and Mrs. Walter DeArment announced that the November meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Harry Gormley with Howard Butler of the Senior high school faculty, as guest speaker.

Later tea was served, with Mrs. John E. Elliott, president of the Woman's club, pouring.

Mrs. Grossman had as her aides Mrs. Walter DeArment, Mrs. M. R. Horning, Mrs. Vennor Bright, Mrs. Owen P. Fox and Mrs. F. F. Urey.

Slovak Ladies Circle

Members of the Slovak Ladies Circle gathered in the home of Mrs. Jane Masajada, of Miller avenue, on Tuesday evening.

THIRD TERM ISSUE GROWS LARGER

WENDELL L. WILLKIE has often said, during his various campaign tours, that with dictatorships spreading throughout the world, and with the democratic principle challenged as never before, no more dangerous moment could have been chosen for an American President to attempt reelection for a third term.

As this campaign draws to a close, the third term issue is given greater and greater emphasis. It is an issue that requires no intricate exegesis, no parade of statistics, no prolonged argument, to sustain. The least-informed voter can understand it. It is not a partisan issue.

Senator Hiram Johnson of California, a Republican who was a strong supporter of President Roosevelt is 74 years old and one of the nation's elder statesmen. That was the role he accepted when he said:

"One who has reached his allotted span, who has no animosities toward any man and no partisanship of any sort, I speak neither as Republican nor Democrat nor Progressive. I speak from a full heart just as an American, and I choose in this campaign the man opposed to the third term. Upon all matters I do not agree with Messrs. Willkie and McNary in this campaign, but they are eternally right up the great issue, and the all-important one, of a third term."

The fact is that Mr. Roosevelt himself once agreed with Senator Johnson. In the procession of questions on the third term issue, starting with George Washington and coming down to the present, the final speech of Candidate Roosevelt in the 1932 campaign, delivered at Madison Square Garden on November 5, seems to have escaped general attention. Here is what Mr. Roosevelt said:

"The genius of America is stronger than any candidate or any party. This campaign, hard as it has been, has not shattered my sense of humor or my sense of proportion. I still know that the fate of America cannot depend on any one man. The greatness of America is grounded in principles and not on any single personality. I, for one, shall remember that, even as President."

The President has forgotten to remember.

POLLS AND SURVEYS

This is a great year for poll takers and surveyors of national sentiment and as usual they do not agree. The survey of Dr. Gallup gave the President a commanding lead a month before the election. Other poll makers disagree with Dr. Gallup. The Dunn survey says that the chances now favor Wendell Willkie for the election and the same opinion has been expressed by Emil Hurja, formerly with the New Deal National Committee, who made such an accurate guess as to the 1936 election, predicting Mr. Roosevelt would carry every state but Maine and Vermont. A month before the election Mr. Hurja expressed the opinion that Wendell Willkie had a decided edge.

This is an unusual campaign. The war in Europe has obscured the issues. Moreover there is a big silent vote. Thousands and hundreds of thousands have come out to register who seldom have come out before. Just what this means nobody can foretell. Both Chairman Martin and Chairman Flynn would like to know. The Republicans are encouraged by this new registration which they believe spells more Willkie votes. They declare that in 1936 the New Deal machine at the height of its power made every effort possible to get out the full vote for Roosevelt. The vote which is coming out now—and was not out for Roosevelt in 1936, they believe—must therefore be a vote favorable to Wendell Willkie.

A great many of the new voters are, of course, first voters who have arrived at the age of twenty-one since 1936. But in the meantime a great many of the older voters have died, so that these two facts offset one another to a degree. Nobody can accurately predict what is going to happen in November. The safest thing to say is that this is a year—with the great silent vote and new registration—which makes the taking of straw votes, and publishing forecasts, a rather hazardous occupation.

DEPENDS ON TURKEY

Side by side in the censored dispatches the statements occur that Russia has an understanding with Germany in that country's descent upon the Dardanelles, Turkey's Maginot line, and that Russia is encouraging Turkey to stand firm in such event with promise of Russian assistance.

Always suspicious of Europeans, the Turks are not likely to fall for Soviet duplicity. If Moscow is playing with Berlin, as Moscow has been, Turkey can ascertain the fact by resisting the impending Axis invasion of that corner of Asia which Turkey controls. Discovering it, Turkey can do one of two things—fight the invaders or break with Britain and acknowledge the Axis to be its master.

Everything indicates that the issue will soon be presented. If Italy advances from Albania upon Greece, simultaneously the German troops can advance from Rumania to Turkey on their way to the Suez Canal.

But Hitler and his Axis partner are up against a tough proposition if they plan to force a passage of the Dardanelles. It has baffled braver and better men in the long course of history.

The British themselves must shudder when they think of Winston Churchill's desperate adventure at Gallipoli and the havoc committed by the Turks.

Moreover, there are a few fundamental facts which may be accepted without question in all the doubt and confusion of this war. One is that Russia will never submit to the domination of the Dardanelles by an unfriendly power if she can help it, and it is difficult to conceive of any bargain which would reconcile her to such domination by Germany, whose leader cannot be trusted.

The actual possession of Rumania is worthwhile to Hitler for the sake of the oil and what the Nazis need, but if the dream is to go to Asia Minor and beyond, the Russian attitude is likely to be, "They shall not pass." Or is this, too, just wishful thinking?

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILD NEEDS SPIRITUAL UPLIFT TODAY

Last summer I attended a Sunday school in a rural area where 96 children were present. This is about the average attendance the year round. Except for one small room for the tots, all the classes meet at different places in the main auditorium. Yet they do not disturb one another much. Often such Sunday schools are far more alive than those with expensive and numerous separate rooms. One of the most pathetic visits to a Sunday school I ever made was to a large city church, several months ago. It had facilities for 1,500 persons, but fewer than three hundred were in the building. I am convinced that this rural Sunday school and community church (where my wife attended as a child and later was teacher and superintendent) has had a most wholesome effect on this fine rural neighborhood.

Spiritual Education Imperative

Perhaps there has been no time in the history of our nation when church and Sunday school should prove of so great value for mental health, moral growth and spiritual uplifts as right now. Looking about us at the world's woes from materialism, some of us at least see, in contrast, rich promise in things spiritual.

Year after year I grow more convinced of the abiding values in religious exercise and education.

Parents who see values in Sunday school will not just send their children. They will go with these children. In doing so they make the children feel that going is worth while. Besides, these parents get their own spiritual dynamos recharged. See, furthermore, the values to the family relationships when all together participate in this enterprise. When the whole family go together and go every Sunday, the child even in his teens rarely objects.

Need Better Teachers

I wish there were more good teaching in the Sunday school, with more opportunities of expression from the children and less preaching by the teacher. I wish there were more appeal to youths who play in bands and orchestras and sing in choirs at school to share in the music program of the Sunday school and church. In a certain mining town of Somerset County, Pa., a young high school music teacher with a vision wins scores of boys to his school choirs. I heard a hundred of these lads singing at a church service. Students from his classes sing in several churches of the home town and neighboring country places. It is a greater honor for a boy to make this choir than to make the football team. I am often inspired by the wonderful teachers I have met who are constantly educating their boys and girls to serve the community and enjoy doing so.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

IT IS BEING DONE.

All those stay-at-home citizens who fail to vote and speciously argue, "What difference does one ballot make?"; all those who sit back and criticise politics and politicians but think it futile for anyone to role up his sleeves and do something about it—in a word, the "Let George do it" persons—are badly in need of a new excuse. Their arguments have never held water. In view of what a group of greenhorn Texas youngsters have just accomplished on the enbattled field of politics, arguments of the "do nothing" crowd should be voided for good.

Down in Pampa, Texas, a number of high school students rallied behind their favorite candidate, Gene Worley, whose chance of election seemed almost nil. Determined to make him the congressional representative from their district, the youngsters elected speakers from among their numbers, wrote a campaign song, organized a band, staged stunts to bag listeners for their candidate, stumped the Panhandle country for weeks addressing the voting public of a score of counties, and put on such a persuasive, bang-up campaign that their elders went out and voted Candidate Worley to victory in twenty-four of the district's twenty-eight counties in the final primary.

This notably has been a year in which political experts have found their strategy blithely swept aside by zealous amateurs who have made up in enthusiasm what they lack in experience. Believing that government and the men who compose it are just as much the concern of amateurs as of experts, they have pitched in and scored unlooked-for success.

This is but to say that the voluble souls who can tell you what's wrong with so-and-so, but can't spare time to vote, to work for their party or support it, ought to be ashamed into silence. Or better yet, aroused to work, as well as talk, for what they say they believe.

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 5:08; sun rises tomorrow 6:22.

The only time some birds need four wheels on an automobile is when they are on a straight road. Two wheels are enough on curves and turning corners.

The love of money may be the root of all evil, but a lot of people go on digging just the same.

A Pittsburgh judge refused to hear a case when the libellant appeared in court without a necktie and wearing an overcoat and no other coat. Courts are getting quite particular along some lines.

THE DRINKER'S PLEDGE

When your feet hit hard,
And your voice sounds queer,
And your thoughts foam up
Like the froth on beer.
When your legs get weak
And your voice gets strong
And you laugh like a sap
At some crazy song,
You're drunk, my boy, you're drunk.
But when you get up in the morning,
Just a-feelin' all in
And you've got an awful headache
That throbs like sin
And you make a solemn promise
You'll never go on one again
You're sober, old man, you're sober.

The least little excuse will make some people raise the prices of what they have to sell. All they want is more money.

The police reporter tells us a man called the police to get him home when his zipper pants went out of gear the other evening.

A Pittsburgh man got a divorce from his wife because she started running around a few days after they were married and said she did not love him and married him just to get out of an orphanage. Wow!

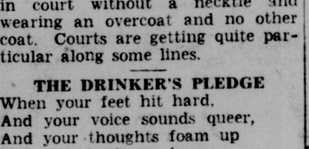

OBLIGING

"Yes, sir, I don't bother picking out my meal from the menu," said the boastful chap in the big city for a short visit. "I just tip that old waiter 50 cents and have him pick me out a good meal. And it works, too."

His friends marveled at his acumen, but the boastful one never recounted the little passage he had with the waiter.

"I'm leaving town after this meal," he told the waiter. "Be sure and make it a good one for me."

"Yes, sir," said the waiter. "And by the way, sir, if you or any of your friends who can't read the bill-of-fare visit here again just ask for me, please."

In a hick town, if you have seen the movie and can't find a fourth for bridge, the only hope of entertainment is a fire.

And now comes the story that a mouse recently ran up the trousers leg of a juror. A local woman, drawn as a juror, says she is not going to let such propaganda worry her. "That's just men stuff, and I'm not going to be scared from doing my jury duty by such silly twaddle," she said.

Very often a man's true character is disclosed when his will is read.

Often when a man has a large following is when a lot of cops are trying to catch him.

HE WOULDN'T

"No, I don't believe I feel quite up to a game," said a man who was watching the horseshoe pitchers in the park. "I'm just a little weak today."

"But it doesn't take much strength to pitch a game," said the man who wanted to play.

"Well, if you insist I'll play, but I'll have to go home for my horseshoes," said the other. He left and half an hour later he was back with a team of horses.

"I always pitch the shoes that way," he explained. "You see I used to mislay horseshoes so much that I had to figure out a better method and since I've pitched this team I've never lost a shoe."

Sometimes the most important thing about a fellow is the things he doesn't say.

"My father has been in the diplomatic service during the period of my education which, of necessity, has been in foreign schools. I can speak several foreign languages and have had unusual advantages for travel and meeting my parents' friends. Consequently, although I am regarded as pretty I feel unable to cope, socially, with the 'wise-cracking party girls' with whom I am thrown now that I am back home."

Answer. Do not try to compete, socially, with such girls or to attract the caliber of men who may gravitate toward and cling to them. Such men usually have some deficiency that gives them an inferiority complex from which they suffer when thrown with superior women. Men have affairs with wise-cracking party girls but if they are real men and are able to keep out of their nets by the time they are of responsible age they prefer for wives the women who are blessed by that dignified reserve which causes people to call them "patrician" and causes their husbands to be proud of them.

Readers' Questions Answered

Question: When writing to a man friend (not a fiance, just an acquaintance) what should my salutation and ending be?—Jane.

Answer: Always be careful of what you write to a man. Never say in a letter anything that will bring blushes to your cheeks should it be read to you later. "Dear Jack" is always safe for a letter such as you describe. "Sincerely" is an appropriate ending for any kind of letter—business or personal.

Question: Is there ever an occasion when a boy may give a girl a diamond ring intended as a gift and not as an engagement ring? If this is allowable, on which hand should it be worn?—Michael.

Answer: If it is your intention to give a girl a diamond ring, you should make it emphatic that it is not intended as a betrothal ring. You should have it measured for her small finger; otherwise, she might wear it on the third finger of her left hand and give the impression that you are engaged. She should wear such a ring on either of her little fingers or on the third finger of her right hand.

Question: My mother will soon give me a party announcing my engagement. I prefer not to mention any wedding date. Is it necessary that a date be set at that time?—Kitty.

Answer: No date need be mentioned. If any of your guests inquire, reply that no date has been set as yet.

MARTIAL THOUGHT

The soldier had been through several battles and was tumbling down the road, his clothing in tatters and his body bleeding from a dozen wounds

"I love my country," he mumbled half aloud. "I'd fight for my country and I'd starve and go thirsty for it. I'd die for my country, too. Yes, I love my country, but if this confounded war is ever over I'll never love another country again."

And when the last German and the last Englishman throw rocks at one another, each will mutter "I'm hurting him as bad as he's hurting me."

Note on efficiency: Germany conquers and occupies a nation in four days: we still plan to start work on naval bases given to us weeks ago.

The traffic officer called a fair lady motorist over to the curb. "I'm afraid I'll have to give you a ticket, much as I dislike to," he said. "If that's the way you feel about it you needn't bother giving me any," the girl said. "See, another policeman gave me one half an hour ago."

MIRACULOUS

A prominent man-about-town finally got married and his friends were talking over the event.

"They say," said the first, "that before he married Margie, Bill told her of all his past love affairs."

"Bill certainly has lots of confidence in her," said the second.

"But it was a lot of unnecessary trouble," said a third man.

"It certainly surprises me," said the fourth man. "I never knew Bill had such a remarkable memory."

It's a well known fact among doctors that happy people are the healthiest and do not catch diseases. In other words, it's the surly bird that gets the germ.

This country will have no war for at least a long time unless some ambitious office seeker gets us into one for spite.

A banker sold out and started a filling station. The first customer who drove in asked for 10 gallons of gasoline, to which the banker replied, "Can't you get along with five?"

A man was undergoing a physical examination for life insurance, so the story goes. The doctor discovered what he thought was tatooing. He saw something like this: "California—8D—70 39."

"That's not tatooed," explained the insurance applicant; "doctor, that's where my wife ran into me with the car when I was opening the garage doors."

President Roosevelt is going to make five campaign speeches. You are sure to hear a lot of new kinds of bull.

Nearly all criticism of Another's behavior is prompted by ignorance. In the same situation, you'd think such behavior justified.

At last the Republicans are getting breaks. Every time a hoodlum heaves a vegetable at Willkie, another decent American decides to vote for him in protest.

If Mr. Willkie is elected president of the United States he will be for all the people. And that will be sumpin' new and important.

A young bride was apologizing to her husband because the laundry had not been done. "You are not peeved about the laundry not being done?" she asked. "Yes, I am," was the answer. "I feel out of shorts already."

There are people who think it is a mistake for people to have money. Of course they are people who do not have money, but people with money have to look after them.

Election Irregularities To Be Probed
Maurice Milligan Is Assigned To Task
Smashed Organization In Kansas City

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—Maurice M. Milligan has charge of the national drive aganist election law violations, which are very numerously charged throughout the country in connection with this year's campaign for the presidency, for senatorships and for seats in the house of representatives.

The justice department recently established a special unit to conduct this crusade, and Attorney General Robert H. Jackson named Milligan as a temporary assistant to act as head of it. Milligan has a reputation for the effective smashing of crooked political machinery. In his position of federal district attorney in western Missouri he demolished Tom Pendergast's Kansas City organization, to the accompaniment of a lot of criminal convictions, including Tom and quite a list of his assistants.

Thus he seems to be particularly well qualified to go after election irregularities on a still larger scale. Nevertheless, there's a small insect (possibly not as big as a fly) sniffed at by some critics, in the ointment of his selection's suitability.

Among political campaign improprieties that he surely will be called on to investigate will be accusations of violations of the Hatch act, which prohibits partisan activity by any but an excepted class of federal office holders.

Ran for Senate

Now, Milligan, having become extremely prominent through his thorough wrecking of the Pendergast setup, wanted to be the Democrats' senatorial nominee over Senator Harry S. Truman. But he was western Missouri's federal district attorney. There's been considerable discussion as to whether or not federal district attorneys ought to be included under the Hatch act prohibition. Milligan seems to have felt that he should quit as district attorney, in order to go into the senate race, for he did resign as district attorney.

Then Senator Truman beat him in Missouri's Democratic primary.

Shortly afterward Milligan was reappointed district attorney.

Legally it was all strictly according to Hoyle. Milligan quit as district attorney. Thereupon he was perfectly entitled to be as political as he pleased. He was licked. Such being the case, it was fully his right to accept reappointment to his previous job. He was indorsed, too, by Senator Truman; also by Senator Bennett Champ Clark. Technically the transaction was absolutely o. k.

Nevertheless, fault-finders maintain that the spirit of the Hatch act was punched full of holes.

Their version is that it would have been all right for Milligan to get out of his federal position and break into politics—if he STAYED out of his federal position, at least for awhile. But their argument is that his almost immediate reappointment to his district attorneyship simply was a kind of subterfuge.

Inappropriate?

He's an inappropriate person, they complain, to put in charge of prosecutions of genuinely raw disregards of our election laws—not, however, that they can say he actually violated them himself.

The senate's campaign expenditures committee always has been charged with the duty of digging into stories of national electoral crookedness, but it hasn't the far-flung organization to consider instances of it, all over everywhere. The civil service commission attends to Hatch act violations by government workers under the merit system, but it can't hit non-civil service employes, and the non-civil servicers, being more independent, are worse than the civil service crew, who are trained to be careful—or they know they'll be kicked out.

It generally is agreed that the justice department's new unit is needed, to accomplish all-around results.

The difficulty is that the side that wins will have charge of the task. Is it likely that it will convict itself, and hand over the administration, the senate and the house of representatives to the other folk?

Small, comparatively local post-election contests amount to something now and then—but nationally? It's hard to imagine.

What Noted People Say

(International News Service)

NEW YORK—Some of the nation's best minds turn their attention to problems facing the United States today:

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt: "No nation is really invincible unless its people wholeheartedly believe that the lives they live day by day, the philosophy of government which they accept, is worth working for and, if necessary, is worth dying for."

Playwright Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce: "The fifth columnist who is Hitler's strongest ally is the fear in the heart that democracy is finished anyway."

Assistant Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson: "We are trying to do in two years what Germany did in seven."

Labor Leader Sidney Hillman: "The morale of our people is a defense asset at least as precious and vital and significant as guns, tanks and planes."

Dr. Alan Valentine, president of University of Rochester: "I hope we shall hear little talk, now or later, about the glories of war and the rough, rude currents of health and regeneration that war will send through the body politic."

Pity The Poor Floater

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.

A SET of citizens who promise to be out of luck in this election are the voters known as "floaters". These are the fellows who either sell their votes directly or are indirectly bought by the precinct executives of the two political machines on election day.

THEY are to be found in a great majority of the precincts and districts all over the country, and their total number is large. The "floater" has no party and, therefore, no party loyalty. And, of course, he is devoid of anything like political principles. Election day with him is a chance to make some "extra dough" and he votes with the side that does business with him. It is only when neither side employs him that the floater votes his "convictions", which is to say his prejudices.

IT very much looks that this time he is going to be given a better chance to do that than he has had in many years. In brief, this election day promises to be very disappointing indeed to the floaters all over the country. The reason is very simple—both parties are broke. Neither side is going to have the kind of election-day money that regularly has enabled the precinct captains or executives to put the floaters on as runners or watchers at $5 and $10 for the day, or pay $15 and $20 for automobiles, to help "get out the vote".

RESPONSIBILITY for this painful—to the floaters—state of affairs is directly laid to the Hatch Act. Under that law, a limit of $3,000,000 has been fixed for the total campaign fund and contributions of more than $5,000 are prohibited. Adherence to the provision of the Hatch Act drastically cuts down the funds of the two national committees. Four years ago the Republicans collected over eight million; the Democrats, over six million. They not only collected that much but they spent more. Both wound up with a considerable deficit—but there was plenty of "dough" for the floaters on election day.

IT'S very different now. Both national headquarters are on the shortest kind of rations. The usual allotments sent to the States the week before the election will have to be either curtailed or cut out. So far as the Republicans are concerned, they could have taken advantage of loopholes in the law and easily raised more than the usual fund but for Mr. Willkie, who insisted upon rigid adherence to the $3,000,000 limit. He not only said it but he meant it. And it is being done. Actually the Republicans would not be so badly cramped for money if the committee had not spent $1,000,000 one way and another before Mr. Willkie became the candidate. But it did and that has cut them down to less than $2,000,000.

THAT isn't much money to run three headquarters in as many cities, meet a large weekly payroll,

NICKNAME "USELESS"

My rating is low with the women,
the mother, the maid and the cook.
I can't oil a hinge that is squeaky.
I can't even put up a hook.
I can't drive a nail with a hammer,
A mechanical blockhead am I.
I can't change a tire on the auto and what's even more I don't try.

My grandsire had skill in his fingers,
but none of it came down to me.
My knowledge of gears is deficient,
a Knudsen I never could be.
And the women folks say to the neighbors:
"You'd think he was bred for a king!
He merely stands round giving orders and won't put his hand to a thing.

"He never gets oil on his fingers;
he never gets grease on his shirt.
It's always some friend who is with him who gets himself covered with dirt.
It's always some great-hearted neighbor who has to set right what is wrong,
But he says when the labor is ended:
"Well! that didn't take us so long!'"

My rating is low with the women,
a butt of their jibing am I.
The maid and the cook and the mother proclaim me an indolent guy.
They say I dodge duties domestic,
but I'm baffled by cogwheels and springs.
And the fact of the matter is simple,
I'm just not a fixer of things.

Words Of Wisdom

supply literature enough to cover the country, defray the expenses of the Willkie Presidential train and the scores of traveling speakers. It really does not leave much over, and the committee has been hard put to it to find the money for the national radio hookups, which cost approximately $8,000 each. Actually, they have been scraping the bottom of the till nearly every week at Republican headquarters, and a good many of the ordinary campaign activities have been dropped.

THE Democrats are in no better financial shape. The Hatch Act has eliminated the large contributions of $50,000, and even more, which in 1936 came from the Fat Cats of the Administration, like Mr. James Cromwell and Mr. Joseph Davies. In fact, nearly all the Ambassadors, except one or two strictly career men, kicked in with contributions far above the present limit of $5,000. Then there was the total of $600,000 which came to the Democrats in 1936 from Mr. John L. Lewis of the CIO. This time Mr. Lewis is leaning toward Mr. Willkie but isn't contributing a nickel to either side.

IT is also true that certain wealthy regular Democrats who in the previous Roosevelt campaigns made substantial contributions have been alienated by the third-term attempt and either are not giving at all or are giving to the other side. Always the Roosevelt forces have had difficulty in getting contributions from businessmen, most of whom have been opposed to the New Deal. That opposition is more solid now than before and they again have resorted to the discreditable method of blackjacking businessmen into buying advertisements in the Democratic campaign book to raise money. And that has not been as successful this time as it was four years ago.

WHAT saves the Democrats, of course, is that this campaign is so largely financed by public funds. Mr. Roosevelt's "inspection trips", which in reality are campaign tours, have been paid for with Government money, and the scores of payroll press agents are cooperating with the committee in the matter of favorable publicity. The WPA rolls and the vast army of jobholders greatly lighten the pressure on the third-term managers for money and give them an advantage over the other side. Hard up as both sides are, however, it is doubtful whether any indispensable campaign activity is seriously crimped.

CUTTING down the funds forces cutting down the waste, which, on both sides in every campaign, has been very great. But that isn't a bad thing, and in the next campaign both sides will have adjusted themselves to Hatch Act limitations—or found a way to beat the game, which is more likely. In any event, the fellow who gets the tough break this time is the floater—and he does not know it yet.

Botanical Display At Public Library

An interesting botanical display, owned by Maurice Mervis, pharmacist, is being shown in the public library, which includes leaves, herbs and medicinal plants.

Featured in the display are also interesting books about herbs, trees, leaves, drugs and medicines. Both the latin and common name is used by Mr. Mervis to identifiy the various kinds of barks, leaves and other specimens used in the display.

The display seems appropriate at this time, inasmuch as trees, leaves and tree bark, have a prominent place in autumn weather.

The big question is, how long can the English take it? When nerves crack and the spirit is tired, nothing seems to matter.

Lutheran Women Have Fall Rally

West Conference Sessions Are Held In St. John's Church, Wednesday

Fall rally sessions of the Lutheran Women's and Young Women's Missionary Society of the West Conference, Pittsburgh Synod, took place in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, East North street, with all day meetings on Wednesday, October 23. Over 400 attended both morning and afternoon meetings.

Mrs. R. W. Doty, Butler, conducted the morning devotional period. Greetings were extended to the convention women from Rev. F. E. Stough, host pastor. Mrs. E. A. Schoeffell, of Evans City, spoke on "What of the Thank Offering".

Mission study was conducted by Mrs. Karl Hutter, of Butler, and news flashes from an educational department were given by Rev. O. W. Carlson, of Butler. Mrs. C. W. Baker, president of the Pittsburgh Synodical Society, spoke on "Iowa Kernals", telling many entertaining features of the recent convention of all the Lutheran women of the United States which took place in the west. The next convention place is Charleston, West Virginia, in 1943. She also reported that the Pittsburgh Synod ranks high in membership and attendance. Also notable is the fact that there are two women missionaries in the foreign field, Margaret Zundal, formerly of New Castle, who is in India, and Ethel Emerick, of Rochester, who is commissioned in Africa.

Presentation of special gifts for the India Centennial to take place in India, 1942, took place, after which representatives from the following institutes spoke: Orphans Home, Zelienople; Old People's Home, Rochester; and Epileptic Home, Rochester. Mrs. J. W. Trent, this city, was appointed to serve on the visitation committee, as secretary.

Luncheon was served at noon by Mrs. John Baer and her aides.

Mrs. Adolf Lang, president of the Missionary Society of St. Paul's church, this city, conducted the opening service for the afternoon sessions. Rev. J. M. Armbruster, missionary from Buenos Aires, South America, was the special guest speaker.

Mrs. W. S. Morrison, of New Brighton, made the presentation of life members. The young women of the church, under the leadership of Miss Lena Richards, presented an entertaining playlet. Those taking part were Mrs. Floyd Wright, Mrs. Raymond Gilbert, Mrs. William Genkinger, Mrs. Anna Barnsley and Mrs. Ben Agnew. Mrs. Agnew also sang several lovely solos. Mrs. George W. Miles had charge of the closing meditation. She is president of the Women's Missionary Society of the Bethany Lutheran church, this city.

Spring rally sessions will take place in East Liverpool, Ohio.

BOYS CLUB WORK TO START SOON

At the meeting of the Townsmen club Wednesday night, it was decided to re-open the work of the Underprivileged Boys club on Sciota street early in November. An organization meeting will be held Friday night, November 2, in the First Congregational church on East Reynolds street. Boys will be registered that night and the club work will start soon after.

Correct this sentence: "Their government promised not to fortify that position," said the statesman, "so we needn't worry about it."

MARGARET BOWERS TO MARRY DR. J. R. BROWN

Of interest to many is the news of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Margaret Bowers and Dr. J. Robert Brown, which was announced as a complete surprise to Stitch-A-Bit club members last evening when they met in regular session in the home of Mrs. Ernest King on Thorpe street.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton of Warren avenue, one of the membership who was unable to attend, being confined to her bed by illness, but introduced the engagement of "Peg and Bob" by sending a sealed letter and a bottle to the club meeting, with the following instructions: "Give to each Stitch-A-Bit member one capsule out of the brown bottle—hold the capsule to the flame of a candle and it will tell you a secret." Upon obeying, the club members revealed in fine writing on the capsules which turned brown in color when exposed to the heat, lettering which read "Peg adn Bob—November 8, 1940".

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. John C. Bowers of Adams street, and Dr. Brown, a prominent veterinarian of this city, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Brown of Plaingrove.

The wedding ceremony will be performed in the Third U. P. church on November 8 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Preceding this feature, the group enjoyed a period of cards, with prizes falling to Mrs. Claire Alford and Miss Bowers. A special guest, Mrs. Frank Davis, was the recipient of a lovely hostess gift.

A delicious repast was served at a suitable time at the candle lighted table, by Mrs. King and Mrs. LeRoy Book, who aided.

The next regular meeting of the club will be on November 12 with Mrs. William Kyle of Adams street.

REV. AND MRS. LEHTO HAVE OPEN HOUSE

About 75 guests attended the "open house" given by Rev. and Mrs. Einar Lehto at the Finnish Lutheran parsonage, South Ray street, Wednesday.

The occasion was in honor of the conclusion of five years of Rev. Lehto's pastorate of the Finnish Lutheran churches of the Mahoning Valley.

The home and tables were decorated in hallowe'en motif, and lunch was served to visitors thruout the day.

The pastor and his wife received many practical gifts and the best wishes of their parishioners and friends.

Guests were present from Bessemer and Lowellville.

T. L. C. Club

T. L. C. club members gathered Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Earl Dean, East Washington street.

Card winners were Mrs. Richard Bailey, Mrs. Charles Myler and Mrs. Ferd Reiter. Refreshments were served by the hostess, aided by Mrs. Ferd Reiter.

November 6, members will meet with Mrs. Edward Kay, Adams street.

Happy Group Club

Miss Margaret Bordonaro, South Mill street, was hostess to the Happy Group club, at a hallowe'en party, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Aronld Julian, Teresa Scaduto and Margaret Bordonaro won the game prizes. Costume awards were received by Mrs. Anthony Delone and Mrs. Alex Canfora.

Mrs. Frank Bordonaro, of Beaver Falls, was the special guest. Lunch was served by the hostess, with Mrs. Lena Frediani and Teresa Scaduto, aiding.

Miss Mary Ellen Bordonaro will be hostess on November 7.

REV. J. A. TINKER HONORED AT PARTY

Rev. J. Albert Tinker, pastor of the Maitland Memorial Primitive Methodist church, was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when he and Mrs. Tinker arrived at the home of Mrs. George Smith, DuShane street, to find the members of the Crusader Bible class present to honor him on his birthday anniversary.

About 18 boys and girls from the class and a few adults attended the event. Rev. Tinker was presented with a number of handsome gifts.

Bible games and songs were enjoyed by the group after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Smith, aided by her daughters, Nancy and Patsy.

J. B. W. Class

Members of the J. B. W. class of the Third U. P. church held their first fall meeting at the home of Mary Arlene Hall on Beckford street Wednesday evening.

Devotions were conducted by the teacher, Mary Irene Taylor, and the election of officers took place. The results were: president, Mary Arlene Hall; vice president, Helen Johnson; secretary, Beverly Emerick; treasurer, Beatrice Swanson, and news reporter, Sally Lou Fehl.

It was decided to have the meetings on the last Monday evening of each month.

Games and contests were enjoyed and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the cohostess, Roberta Wimer.

Janet Foreman will entertain the group in her Ray street home for the next meeting.

Congenial Club

Associates of the Congenial club and Mrs. Charles Ross of Ellwood City enjoyed a masquerade party on Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Anthony Frank on Franklin avenue.

The club token and the prize for the best costume were both received by Mrs. Everett Pander. Other prize winners in games were Mrs. Joseph Lesniak and Mrs. John Bender.

A delicious hallowe'en lunch was served by the hostess, and plans were made for the next gathering on November 6.

Semper Fidelis

Mrs. Andrew Sarbo will entertain members of the Semper Fidelis club in her Euclid avenue home this evening instead of on Wednesday evening as previously announced.

LEAGUE DISCUSSES "ROMAN LETTERING"

In the Kurtz Place home of Mrs. Charles Flemming on Wednesday afternoon members on the Artists' League met to discuss "Roman Lettering" with Mrs. Cecile Dix leading the group.

Roll call was answered and plans were made for a field trip today which will be in sketching along the Neshannock.

October 29 the group will attend the American Art Show at Carnegie Museum in Pittsburgh.

A delicious repast was served by the hostess, after which Mrs. Jack Davis invited the ladies to her home on November 6.

Give your family Homogenized Milk

TESTS PROVE IT TO BE

The Greatest Improvement in Milk SINCE PASTEURIZATION

As a result of exhaustive tests conducted by a group of leading Pennsylvania child specialists we make this statement: Homogenized milk represents the greatest improvement since the discovery of pasteurization.

Homogenizing, which breaks up the cream and distributes it evenly throughout the milk, tends to make milk more readily digestible. It also gives a creamy flavor that tempts youngsters to drink more milk.

Why not give your family the benefit of our Homogenized Vitamin D Milk? It's Sealtest Supervised for purity—pasteurized for your protection, and each quart contains 400 Units of Vitamin D—the "sunshine" vitamin.

TEAM-WORK

Without team work, even an All-American star would be smothered before he reached the scrimmage line. Team work is essential, too, in the treatment of illness. The work of the physician might be unavailing without perfect cooperation by the pharmacist who compounds the prescription. With that understanding, we make sure that quantities conform to his written instructions and that each ingredient conforms to his unwritten but, nevertheless, implied desire that it be of the highest quality—pure, fresh and of standard strength.

Physical Standards Set Up For Draftees

By JACK VINCENT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—A far cry from World war days of 1917, medical regulations for the national draft army now being raised disclosed today that the 17,000,000 men who registered under the conscription law just a week ago will be subject to blood tests for syphilis.

The regulations setting up physical standards for the classification of potential conscripts into three general health groups, were being sent to every local draft board in the nation so that classification can begin immediately after the national draft lottery is completed in Washington next Tuesday, Oct. 29.

Under the regulations, it also was revealed that social diseases would not be original grounds for deferment from service. However, those afflicted will be re-examined before they are ordered to report, and army doctors are expected to reject them if they get as far as induction centers.

Three General Groups

The regulations set up three general groups for registrants:

1. Those physically fit who will be put in class 1-A—available for immediate military service.

2. Those with minor physical ailments, who will be placed in class 1-B—available for limited military service.

3. Those physically unfit for any type of service, who will be placed in class 4, or in a group that never will be called up.

Highlight of the regulations was the statement: "A serological (blood) test for syphilis shall be made of every registrant as part of his physical examination." Such tests were not used in the first world war. It was also stated that modern medical machines such as X-rays and electrocardiographs may be used in the examination. Tubercular tests also may be made. But the serological test is mandatory, the others at the discretion of the examining physician.

The regulations provided that every man inducted into the army under conscription "must be able to see well; have comparatively good hearing; have a heart able to withstand the stress of physical exertion; be intelligent enough to understand and execute military orders, and be able to transport himself by walking as the exigencies of military life may demand."

Height Requirements

In general, draftees must be at least five feet tall and not more than 6 feet 6 inches in height; must have 12 natural teeth; must hear at 10 feet what a normal ear would hear at 20 feet; must weigh not less than 105 pounds nor more than would permit normal physical activity; must have good vision, and feet which can stand long marches. A long march is estimated to be 20 to 25 miles a day.

Doctors attached to local draft boards were ordered to take elaborate precautions against malingering, such as feigning of illness or physical disability. Flat feet, weak eyes, hay fever, lack of single finger or toe will not neecssarily disqualify men from training and service. Color blindness is definitely not a cause for disqualification. Cancer, tuberculosis, leprosy and some other communicable diseases are causes for rejection.

Those immediately considered for induction into the army by local draft boards will have five days in which to report to the examining physician for the medical examination. The instructions sent to the doctors cover a wide range of subjects, including general and miscellaneous defects; height, weight and chest measurements; eyes; ears; mouth, nose, pharnyx and larnyx; teeth; skin; head, spine and sacro-iliac joints; fingers and toes; neck; lungs and chest wall; heart; blood vessels and circulation, and mental and nervous disorders.

Plans For Lottery

Meanwhile, National Draft Director Clarence A. Dykstra completed final plans for the national draft lottery in Washington next Tuesday, now only six days away. Drawing of numbers will start after President Roosevelt makes a short speech. The numbers will be strung by a needle on a thread as they are drawn so that they will be certain to be kept in sequence. At the same time they will be photographed on a continuous film as they are drawn.

Every number will be in a separate capsule in the gold-fish bowl to be used in the lottery. Stuffing of the capsules started today. Three teams of 30 men each were also being trained to pick the numbers. Working two hours and resting four hours, the teams will swing into action after such dignitaries as Secretary of War Stimson pick the first numbers blindfolded. The drawing was expected to take between 15 and 20 hours. It will tell registrants which ones of them will receive questionnaires for possible military service first.

Fall Convention Of Luther League Here

League To Have Convention In St. Paul's Lutheran Church Saturday

St. Paul's Lutheran church, at the corner of Grant and Jefferson streets, will be the scene on Saturday, October 26, of the fall convention of the West Conference Luther League of the Pittsburgh Synod.

Sessions will be held in the afternoon and evening, with dinner being served at 6 p. m. Rev. A. M. Stump is pastor of the host church. The theme of this convention will be "We Are in His Service Now".

Between 2 and 2:30 o'clock, registrations will take place, to be followed by the business session at 2:30 o'clock with the president, William Gregor, in charge. Afternoon devotions will be held afterwards, with Rev. H. J. Schmid, pastor of Holy Trinity church of Beaver, in charge.

Chief speaker at the afternoon session will be Rev. O. W. Carlson, pastor of the First Lutheran church of Butler and president of the West Conference of the Pittsburgh Synod.

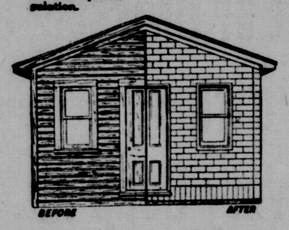

The evening session will begin at 7 o'clock wiht Rev. Stump leading devotions. Rev J. F. Kindsvatter, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, East Liverpool, O., will be the evening speaker.

People seem to like Willkie better than his party. Isn't it strange that opponents should have so much in common.

Yet it won't be long until more fortunate people are calling these the good old days.

Willkie Again Charges Roosevelt Intervened In European Affairs

By WALTER KIERNAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 24—Wendell Willkie today reiterated the charge that President Roosevelt had personally intervened in European affairs at the time of the Munich conference in 1938 which resulted in the obliteration of Czechoslovakia as an independent nation.

Willkie hammered home his charge in the face of a denial by President Roosevelt at Philadelphia last night that he had telephoned to Mussolini and Hitler "to sell Czechoslovakia down the river"

His sole error of fact in the original charge, Willkie told a train-side audience at nearby Harbor Creek, was in the mode of communication with a foreign chief of state which President Roosevelt employed.

"As a matter of fact," Willkie reiterated, "the third term candidate did not telephone Hitler—he telegraphed him."

Willkie's address, drafted upon completion of Mr. Roosevelt's first avowed political speech last night, was a definite point-by-point rebuttal of the issues stressed by the president. It followed, too, upon the heels of Willkie's declaration before a New York audience last night in which, with reference to his repeated challenge to Mr. Roosevelt to meet him in personal debate, he said:

"Whenever it becomes my duty to say of another man that he has falsified the record, I like to look him face to face and say so."

As for the differentation between a telephone and a telegraphic communication wtih Hitler, Willkie continued, he previously had acknowledged his mistake. Then Willkie cited the long list of questions he has asked the president which he said Mr. Roosevelt had declined to answer.

"The third term candidate," Willkie said, "is trying to violate a tradition of 150 years and yet has offered not one word in defense of his attempt."

Willkie flatly disputed Mr. Roosevelt as to where the credit should go for enactment of deposit bank insurance, giving credit therefor to Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Michigan Republican. The president, he charged, had opposed such insurance.

NORWEGIANS LOSE OLD AGE CREDITS BY NAZI INVASION

(International News Service)

ESTHERVILLE, Ia.—The social security on which Scandinavians have been depending for sustenance in their old age has been wiped out by the Nazi invasion, according to a letter which reached Estherville from Kvammon, Norway.

"A great many are out of money, and we who are old should receive old age pensions, but probably are out of luck and will get nothing to live from as everything goes into the war chest," Osmund Rugtiv wrote from Norway to his brother, George Rugtiv, who lives in Estherville.

"Everything is rationed, both for man and beast," the letter said.

Markings on the letter indicated it had been inspected by Nazi officials before being sent to America.

TEXAN HAS RECORD OF 50 CONTINUOUS YEARS WITH ARMY

(International News Service)

FORT WORTH, Tex.—Retirement has come for Brig. Gen. Charles W. Nimon, who at the age of 64 has a record of fifty years' continuous service in the United States defense forces.

Fifty years ago in June, 1890, young Charlie Nimon was mustered in, with 39 others, as charter members of the Denison Zouaves for the Spanish-American War He was not yet fourteen, but "They just didn't ask any questions in those days."

Now he has been promoted to the post of brevet-major general, an honorary post. He will continue in his civilian capacity as secretary of the Texas National Guard Armory board. He has always been in the National Guard in times of peace and served in the First World War, as well as the Spanish-American War.

Modern Living Not To Blame For Blood Pressure

(International News Service)

SEATTLE, Wash.—Contrary to popular belief, arterial hypertension—high blood pressure—has not increased because of the dizzy pace of modern life.

So says Dr. Soma Weiss, physician in chief at the Peter Bent Brigham hospital at Boston, Mass., a professor of medicine at Harvard university and a member of the faculty of the University of Washington's graduate summer medical course.

"High blood pressure is as frequently found in small villages where life is quiet and excitement rare," said Dr. Weiss, "as it is in large cities.

"The carefree southern darky is as susceptible to high blood pressure as the big executive carrying a heavy load of responsibility."

Dr. Weiss even doubts that cases of high blood pressure are becoming alarmingly more numerous. They may appear to be more numerous, he explained because people live longer and have an opportunity to develop the disease."

Hypertension, according to Dr. Weiss, is caused by the presence in the blood of a chemical produced by the kidneys. This substance, the nature of which is not yet known, causes a construction of the blood vessels.

"I pay no tax," says the poor man. Poor sucker! Every time he buys anything, the price includes every tax imposed on those who produced it.

"Dixie" Davis Is Small Town Man

One-Time Gangster Mouthpiece And Wife Live In New Mexico

(International News Service)

LAS VEGAS, N. M.—Richard "Dixie" Davis, one-time "kid mouthpiece" for New York gangsters, and his Broadway showgirl wife, Hope Dare, have given up the bright lights for good and settled down to small town life in Las Vegas, N. M.

Las Vegas, a city of 9,000, on the rolling plains of northern New Mexico, is the girlhood home of Hope.

Davis married the former showgirl following his release from prison, where he served a term for his connection with the policy racket.

Davis is reported completely recovered from a recent illness which sent him to an Alburquerque hospital in assertedly critical condition.

The former tabloid headliners attend each new picture at the local moving picture house and are frequently seen strolling on the streets. They seem to be enjoying their life away from the Broadway night spots quite thoroughly. Hope still dresses in the latest New York fashions.

Mrs. Gerald Buxtom, Hope's mother, who lives with the couple in a modest apartment and acts as their spokesman, said Las Vegas residents have been friendly.

"Hope has a lot of girlhood friends here," Mrs. Buxtom said. "But both she and Dixie like to be alone together a lot."

COLLEGE PROVIDES GEM COLLECTION FOR STUDENTS

STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—In order to teach students how to evaluate and identify precious jewels a veritable "treasure house" of precious and semi-precious stones has been assembled by the School of Mineral Industries at the Pennsylvania State College.

Diamonds, sapphires, emeralds and rubies are among the best known precious stones in the collection which includes both cut and uncut stones representing about 75 different species and varieties of gems. Semi-precious exhibits include opals, peridotes, tourmalines, spinels and various silica minerals. There are also glass replicas of the famous diamonds of the world.

Ready to Say "We Do"

Pert Dixie Dunbar, dancing star of stage and screen, and Gene Snyder, New York dance director, smile their happiness as they announce they will be married soon. There had been rumors for months that the couple were altar-bound. (Central Press)

Join in Defense Inspection

FELLOW CITIZENS OF NEW CASTLE:

The Community Chest Campaign is about to enter its final week. This annual drive for funds to take care of New Castle's human needs is a real opportunity for the citizens of the community to demonstrate in a concrete way their willingness to do their part in making the plight of the needy more bearable and in raising the moral standard of our youth.

If you have done what you conscientiously believe to be your share, we thank you most gratefully. If you have been solicited, but have not yet returned your pledge, we urgently request that you give it to your solicitor as soon as possible. If you have been missed thus far in the general solicitation, won't you please take it upon yourself to call or drop in at the Community Chest Office and make your contribution.

You are the best judge of your own capacity to give. We ask no great sacrifice from you. We do ask that you give all that you can reasonably give. We do ask that you think in terms of what your help can do. Your contribution may mean the difference between health and sickness for some poor child, between warm clothes and tattered rags, between a good patriotic citizen and a criminal, between a clean, happy home for a youngster and an existence on the streets.

This is an annual appeal. You need not pay today. Budget your Chest contribution. Pay it monthly or quarterly. More of your dollars are needed if our welfare agencies are to do their work next year. Remember—this solicitation covers NINE agencies. If you have not yet done your full share, please call your solicitor today and help us to finish this job.

IN AMERICA HEARTS DICTATE

Sincerely yours,

P. G. DINGLEDY, Chairman,

To Check Constipation Get at Its Cause!

If constipation has you down so you feel heavy, tired and dopey, it's time you did something about it. And something more than just taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble.

If you eat the super-refined food most people eat, the chances are the difficulty is simple—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines.

If this common form of constipation is your trouble, eat Kellogg's All-Bran regularly, and drink plenty of water. All-Bran isn't a medicine—it's a crunchy, toasted cereal. And it will help you not only to get regular but to keep regular. Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.

ANCIENT COAT OF ARMOR IS FOUND IN CALIFORNIA

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO—Busy, modern California every so often is reminded, by some historical discovery, of its romantic fabulous past. Experts are studying an ancient, rusted armor breastplate found buried in earth near Bolinas, Cal., in an effort to identify it.

Some authorities believe it to be of Spanish origin—a relic of one of the 16th century Spanish expeditions into the then uncharted wilds. Others have judged it the product of an English smithy, hazarding that it probably belonged to a deserter from the expedition of Sir Francis Drake. The brass plate which Drake erected at Drake's Bay, proclaiming California as New Albion on June 17, 1579, was found four years ago.

STORE'S MAILBOX ON SATURDAY IS SIDEWALK GRATING

(International News Service)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—People remember all the stories they've heard about mailmen whose feet hurt them, and who threw away the mail, when they see Clarence Juersky in action Saturday mornings.

Juersky, once a week, takes mail out of his sidewalk grating, right in front of anybody who happens to come along.

It's all on the up and up, however. Juersky has his instructions to make deliveries that way Saturday mornings because the store by the grating has no mail slot and is closed until 7 p. m. Store officials pick up the mail out of the basement.

GRANDDAUGHTER DIES

Mrs. William G. Lewis, of 105 East Reynolds street, has received word of the death of her granddaughter, Donna Lee Lewis, Tuesday evening, aged seven months daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lewis, of McKeesport. The former and daughters, Mrs. Mary A. Richards, East Reynolds street, Mrs. Walter Curry, Norwood avenue, and daughter, Betty Lou, have left, to attend the funeral.

Things will change. When all nations lie and break pledges, those who started it will urge adoption of some system they can depend on.

Democracy in action: English people dying for want of dug shelters; thousands of miners jobless and living on a dole.

Progress of a race: 1840, imported as slaves; 1940, flattered and courted by the leaders of both political parties.

TELLS HOW "VENDOL" RELIEVED AWFUL ACHING BACK PAINS

Highly respected Pennsylvania man says his kidneys needed something to hasten action and bowels were constipated. Declares Vendol gave excellent relief.

MR. AXEL CHRISTENSON

"For several months I have felt that my kidneys were not acting freely enough and I was also constipated nearly every day, and as a result of this I had awful rheumatism-like pains in my arms, across my back, and down through my limbs and some nights the pains actually interfered with my sleep, which made me feel terrible the next morning," declares Mr. Axel Christenson living at 103 Dartmouth Street, Warren, Pennsylvania.

"A few weeks ago I began taking Vendol and the little Vendol laxative tablets, and I'm grateful for the wonderful relief this medicine gave and just feel fine today.

"Vendol acted as a mild diuretic on my kidneys and gave the most satisfying relief from constipation I'd known in a long time; then the pains gradually grew less until now I never have them any more. I believe my entire digestion is better and I go about my duties with a light heart."

Vendol is made from extracts of 12 old-fashioned Roots and Herbs with mild Alkalines added, and is praised all over this and nearby states for relieving troubles when definitely due to constipation such as indigestion, biliousness, headaches, pains in the muscles of the arms, back, and limbs, and others. Not all such cases can be charged to constipation, but if yours can be, don't fail to try Vendol and see how it may bring all the relief desired.

There is only one Vendol, and it comes in 3 sizes for your convenience. Larger bottles are the most economical. Sold at leading druggists, recommended especially by Eckerd's of New Castle, 118 East Washington St.

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

(Copyright, 1940, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

A DAY WITH THE QUINS II

Our talk yesterday about the schedule we follow at the quintuplet nursery had mostly to do with their sleeping habits. They spend nearly 15 hours in bed daily, but believe me they do enough in the nine hours they are up and about to warrant these long hours of sleep.

They rise at 7:30. Sometimes they are awake, sometimes the nurse coming in finds them all sleeping peacefully and has to wake them. That waking is the signal for a day of hectic activity.

As you would expect, Emilie is the first up and dressed. In fact, she often gives Marie a helping hand with her dressing, because Marie is one of those who doesn't feel very bright early in the mornings. Nothing seems to button right, and she goes around with her eyes half shut, not fully awake. I know that hundreds who read this will sympathize fully with Marie for there are lots of us just like her.

While dressing is going on, the nurses are busy curling the children's hair, and when this is finished, all five go in for breakfast. The two nurses, Miss Dupeau, Miss Chaput, and the teacher, Miss Vezina, eat with them.

At the conclusion of the meal, they go to the bathroom and brush their teeth before having morning prayers. Then for ten minutes they romp around the play room and do pretty much as they like.

At 8:15 the teacher takes the five into the classroom and begins her day with them. Her lessons include religious teaching. One hour later they leave the classroom and dress to go out and play. This is the period they like most, for they skate, or ski, or play in the snow. They like that.

At 10:45 they come in and in cold weather, it takes the best part of 15 minutes to get them out of their coats, and sweaters, and ski pants. When they are rid of their out-of-doors clothes, they go back to the classroom for more lessons. Then at 11:30, they take their before dinner rest period, 15 minutes.

They go into the dining room with the three adults again, for dinner, and I am very pleased to say that the children's table manners are remarkably correct. I think that is because they are critics of each other. If one makes a slip in manners, the rest tell her about it—after the meal is over.

The afternoon nap comes at 12:30 and lasts just two hours. And they really sleep. When they get up they have half an hour free play again before they go into the classroom at 3 o'clock for more lessons. At 4:30 a nurse comes in and takes two of them out for their baths. The other three stay in the classroom until these two come back, and two others go out. The girls take turns being the one to take her bath by herself.

Baths are followed by prayers, then another 15 minute rest period before supper at 5:30. After the children have brushed their teeth, they play or have story hour until is time to go to bed which is about 7 o'clock.

AROUND CITY HALL

"When you park your car and leave your children in the auto do not fail to leave open a window" Traffic Officer Thomas Jones advised today. The traffic policeman said that the wind blows the fumes up through the auto endangering the lives of children.

No decision has yet been announced relative to two problems perturbing council. One is the purchase of the Nail mill of the C-I company and the other is the disposition of the Vine street fire department. Probability is decisions will be made soon.

Equipment of the city engineer's department and some equipment of other city bureau is stored in the East street building formerly occupied by the Central fire department. To some it appears that the building would, if put in good condition prove more valuable for some other purpose.

The plague is now on the street department. Leaves swept into the street are washed into sewers and it will not be very long until ashes placed on slippery paved hills will also be washed into the sewers. However, so far no complaints of the leaves clogging sewers, has been uttered.

Police who distribute tags usually sign their initials to the tags. Those who dislike the tags go to various lengths to ascertain who the initials fit. They should remember that the policeman who presents a tag to an erring motorist is doing a job for which the taxpayer hired him.

BESSEMER

GIRL SCOUT ELECTION

The Girl Scouts of Bessemer gathered in the Bessemer public school recently and elected troop leaders and assistants and other officers which resulted as follows: Troop 1 Patrol Leader, Miss Doris Carr; assistant, Ruth English; Troop 2, Mary Illene Glasgow; assistant, Marjorie Hardesty; Troop 3, Mary Lou Montgomery; assistant, Evelyn Tennis; historian, Delores Martin; scribe, Lucille Penwell. Leader, Mrs. Audley Snyder.

HIKE AND SUPPER

The Girl Scouts met at the school and started on a hike with Smith Woods as the destination, where they enjoyed their supper. There were 17 girls in attendance. Miss Helen Montana, first class scout, was present. The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the school building.

GO TO HOUSEKEEPING

BESSEMER NOTES

James Chaney has returned to his home after spending the week-end at East Palestine, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Thompson and William Nord, of Struthers, O., called on Mrs. Anna Porter and family recently.

Mrs. James R. Chaney and granddaughter, Evelyn Joyce Houk, are spending several days with relatives in Wilkinsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire F. Groce, of Brownlee Woods, were present callers of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Groce.

Jack Lehnhard and Charles Hickey Jr., of Wilkinsburg, have returned to their respective homes after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. James R. Chaney.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Paden of Sunnyside, Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Book and daughter, Marian, of Bessemer, spent several days recently visiting friends in Washington, D. C., and other historical places, returning home over the super-highway.

Before the white man came, Indians hunted bison for their necessities, not for sport, the herds supporting their needs for centuries. Within one generation of the white man's methods, the bison was almost extinct.

Personal To Fat Girls

Now you may slim down your face and figure without starvation dieting or back-breaking exercises. Just eat sensibly and take Marmola under the conditions and according to directions on the package.

Marmola Tablets have been sold to the public for more than thirty years. More than twenty million boxes have been distributed during that period.

Marmola is not a cure-all. Marmola is only for adult fat persons whose fatness is caused by a thyroid deficiency (hypothyroidism) but who are otherwise normal and healthy. We do not make any diagnosis as that is the function of your physician, who must be consulted for that purpose. Why not try to lose those ugly, uncomfortable pounds the Marmola way? SALE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

SENSATIONAL PURCHASE AND SALE OF TWIN BEDS, SPRINGS AND MATTRESSES

Many Sold for Even More Than $9.95 each
These beds were offered to us by the famous SUPERIOR SLEEPRITE CORPORATION at such an astounding low price that we snapped them up in a hurry, and when you see them you'll have to agree such beauty and fine quality have never been offered before at anywhere near $9.95! There were only a limited number available, however, and that's why we must confine this great event to Friday and Saturday only! It will be worth your while to come down tomorrow!

Be On Hand Early For Best Selection!
If you've wanted twin beds in your home, then this is a grand opportunity to have them at really astounding savings! These are America's most beautifully designed beds, in a choice of seven different styles, including modern solid panel, Windsor, Jenny Lind and others. All are sturdily made of all-steel, in attractive baked-on, chip-proof finishes. Many are artistically decorated, and some have built-in bed lamps. Ordinarily, you'd pay more than this for just one bed, alone! Don't miss this value-giving event!

New Castle's Most Spectacular Bed and Bedding Event

TWIN COIL SPRINGS!
2 FOR ONLY
$9.95
$1 Monthly

Another remarkable money-saving opportunity! Not the usual type of spring but sturdy, resilient coils, prevents side swing and keeps your mattress from sagging. Besides adding much to the comfort of the bed, it will prolong the life of your mattress. Tomorrow only . . . two twin coil springs for just $9.95!

TWIN SIZE MATTRESSES
2 FOR ONLY
$9.95
$1 Monthly

When it comes to economical comfort, these mattresses are positively unbeatable! Full weight, covered in attractive, long-wearing ticking. Ordinarily, you'd have to pay $9.95 for just one, but tomorrow only, you get TWO for that low price! Be sure to shop early tomorrow, because at this great saving they're bound to sell quickly.

"Pick-me-ups" pick 'em up and then throw 'em down.

"Pick-me-ups" merely mask fatigue and are false friends.

"Pick-me-ups' do not give new energy, new strength and vitality.

They only stimulate the body to draw on energy reserves.

Such action ends eventually in physical and nervous collapse.

Students, cramming for exams, often use "pep" pills.

These are dangerous drugs.

They raise blood pressure and increase heart action.

For the moment the user is nervously stimulated, feels elated.

Suddenly, the effect wears off, the victim is left "pep-less".

Fatigue is a true friend, warning of one's need for rest.

Rest is the only cure for physical and nervous fatigue.

Three Seniors Here Win Oberlin Awards

Three senior high school seniors won recognition in the 12th annual "High School Day" examinations held by Oberlin College and Conservatory in Oberlin, O., last week, the college announced today

Miss Julia Johns took first place in singing and has been offered a tuition award of $225 for 1941-42. David Cramer, competing in the wind instrument field, was named an alternate for a conservatory tuition award. James Hares, competing in history, was named an alternate for a full tuition scholarship for 1941-42 in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Science Finds New Ally In Its War On Measles

Deaths Decrease Despite Fact That Number Of Cases Gains Yearly

(International News Service)

CHICAGO.—Science, in its campaign against measles, a disease for which medicine has no specific cure and whose cause is not yet identified, has uncovered a strong ally, studies made by the Chicago Board of Health reveal.

The use of immune globulin, a protein fraction of the blood, provides an important reserve weapon in the fight against measles, the Health Board declared. Experiments involving the cases of 1,305 Chicago schoolchildren under 10 years of age, were reported in the last issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association by Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the board; Dr. William I. Fishbein, Dr. Irving R. Adams and Richard D. Miller.

Measles is stamped as one of the few epidemic diseases that has shown an increase over the years since the American cities began to practice preventive medicine. In Chicago, the disease increased from 15,132 cases in 1913 to 37,831 in 1938. However, in the same period, the death rate dropped from 12.4 per cent per 100,000 population to 1.1. There were 292 deaths in 1913 and 40 in 1938.

During the last year globulin injections were given to 678 children who were exposed to measles. Of these, only 325, or 47.9 per cent developed the disease. In 293, or 90.1 per cent of the 325 who got measles the infection was mild, lacking most of the more severe symptoms. In the same period convalescent serum was given to 299 children exposed to the disease. Only 80, or 26.7 per cent, got the disease.

DONATES BLOOD FOR 400 TRANSFUSIONS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK—A Good Samaitan in no limited sense of the word is Mrs. Rose L. McMullin who has traveled from coast to coast, donating her blood for more than 400 transfusions in forty states in the last five years.

Mrs. McMullin, who arrived in New York to aid in a transfusion for a twenty-five-year-old mother, hurried east from Salt Lake City, Utah, on an urgent wire from doctors here.

The donor is a phenomenon to the medical world. She is the only person whose blood can resist staphylococcus eureus, a disease of the blood stream.

Mrs. McMullin also is said to be the only person who has been able to offer blood simultaneously for two transfusions. She performed this task in Portland, Ore.

'FUR FARMERS' TO START CHINCHILLA FARM IN OREGON

(International News Service)

PORTLAND, Ore.—Proud of its early days as a fur trading empire, the Northwest is watching with lively interest the progress of an experimental chinchilla farm now being established some 50 miles southwest of Eugene.

Operators of the McKenzie silver fox ranch are investing more than $120,000 in 19 pairs of the costly South American rodents. Their highly prized fur brings the value of each breeding animal to $3,200.

The McKenzie "fur-farmers" say at least 10 years must pass before there will be enough chinchillas to warrant scalping them for their pelts. These rodents came from an Inglewood, Cal. farm but their natural habitat is in the snowcapped Andes.

Easy Pleasant Way TO LOSE FAT

How would you like to lose ten or more pounds in a month and at the same time feel better perhaps than you have for years?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too-prominent lips and at the same time feel more youthful and be more attractive?

How would you like to get your weight down to normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure?

Get on the scales today and see how much you weigh; then get a bottle of Kruschen Salts which will last 4 weeks and is inexpensive—take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—cut out pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar. When you have finished this first bottle, weigh yourself again.

Start today girls to get a more graceful, charming, slender figure. Leading druggists all over America sell Kruschen Salts—plain or new effervescent—pleasant, sparkling.

You can always get it at Eckerd's Drug Stores. Try one bottle—if not supremely satisfied money back.

Democrats Hear Judge Musmanno

Other Leaders Of Party And Candidates Speak At Meeting Last Night

Urging the re-election of Franklin D. Roosevelt as president of the United States, Judge Michael A. Musmanno of Pittsburgh addressed a crowd of about 350 people in King Humbert hall on Division street Wednesday night.

In his talk Judge Musmanno recounted some of the achievements of the president, listing social security, collective bargaining, aid to needy persons and a number of others. He was introduced by Attorney Joseph A. Leta, Jr.

Dominick Cioffi, secretary of the Democratic County committee, was in charge of the meeting and introduced John B. Shaw, county chairman of the Democratic party.

Peter P. Reising, candidate for congress upon the Democratic ticket spoke briefly as did Presley N. Jones, candidate for the General Assembly from New Castle.

Judge Musmanno left New Castle for Ellwood City, where he spoke at a rally along with Lieutenant-Governor Francis Kelley of Massachusetts. Later they both went to Hillsville and addressed a rally there.

News Briefs From City Hall

No formal invitation having been received by members of council, at a City Hall meeting today, indications are none of them will attend the meeting tonight in the Croton public school, where a rumor which purported the abandonment of the Croton fire department was to be discussed. As yet officials have not announced the department is to be abandoned.

Francis Sowersby today was granted councilmanic permission to have a property in Hazlecroft avenue, Neshannock township, connected with the sanitary sewer in North Mercer street, Sowersby having agreed to abide by all the regulations laid down by the city.

Petition today requested a street light be placed in an alley between Franklin and Almira avenues. The petition was sent to committee. On the petition was a note that "police have been called to this dark section because of 'Peeping Toms'."

Cecil Suber, city policeman, is ill . . . Police received a report last night a dog had attacked a woman in the 100 block of South Jefferson street. No names were provided the police, according to the report . . . The dog catcher operated today in the seventh ward.

Two young men who gave the names of Brinley Vaughn and Dave Bullano, said by police to be East Washington street residents, were both fined $10 today by Mayor Charles B. Mayne in police court. It was alleged they were engaged in a fight at an East Washington street residence early today. The charge upon which they were convicted was disorderly conduct, records show.

A welcome piece of news was given to city council today by Director of Property J. D. Alexander. He reported receipt of news that in the future the compensation rate per week per man on those employed on relief projects by the city will be 30 cents, instead of 50 cents, as heretofore. "This means a saving of $200 a month to the city," Finance Director J. Leon Fink informed colleagues.

Will Demonstrate Corn Varieties

Crop Specialist From State College To Conduct Two Meetings Friday

J. B. R. Dickey, crops specialist from State College, will be present at the harvesting of two corn variety demonstrations in Lawrence County, Friday, October 25.

Mr. Dickey will discuss the varieties of corn adaptable to Pennsylvania conditions. In these demonstrations, a number of open pollinated and hybrid varieties are being tried along with local varieties of corn. Some of each will be harvested and yields taken to assist in determining the adaptability of various varieties to Lawrence County conditions.

These demonstration meetings are open to the public, and all are invited to attend.

The first meeting will be held at farm of Albert Chapin, Neshannock township at 10:30 a. m., and the second meeting will be at the farm of C. O. McConnell, Washington township at 1:30 p. m.

CROTON AVENUE IS OPEN TO TRAFFIC

Croton avenue is now open for the use of motorists, its entire length, the last work having been completed near the intersection of East Washington street Wednesday.

There is still a stretch of paving between Ray street and Martin street, which is not completed, but one-way traffic is being maintained at this point until the work is done.

JUST PLANE SCARED

Several fur farms were forced to move in the early days of aviation. Located near airports, the fur farmers were unable to understand why, time after time, mother foxes would kill their entire litters. They finally discovered the noise of the planes at the airports was making the mamma foxes so nervous they killed their young, which is characteristic of mamma foxes when any unusual disturbance upsets them.

Chest Drive Leaders Map New 'Strategy'

Talk Immediate Plans As Campaigning Shows $24,322 Lacking

Community Chest solicitation continued in the field today as Campaign Chairman Paul G. Dingledy and 10 division chairmen of the current drive for $60,500, met in The Castleton to informally discuss drive strategy.

At the luncheon the leaders were to decide whether or not another general report luncheon will be called. They canvassed the whole campaign and progress shown.

Workers last reported $36,178 subscribed. Remaining unpledged is $24,322.

Third-term issue: A national question of vital importance which must be decided some time when the people can get their minds on it.

SECTION SEWS AT JAMESON HOSPITAL

Many articles were made for the Jameson Memorial hospital at the sewing session in the solarium on Wedesday morning from 9 until 12 noon, when members of Section One of the First Christian church gathered to sew.

Cutters for the day were Mrs. F. W. Sontum and Mrs. Norman A. Martin. Any women interested in sewing for the hospital may attend these sessions, held every two weeks.

Afterwards, members of the section went to the home of Mrs. A. E. Johnston, East street, for their 1 o'clock luncheon and routine meeting.

On Wednesday, November 6, the group will meet for luncheon in the home of Mrs. C. V. Underwood, 201 East Laurel avenue.

B. and B. Club

B. and B. club members entertained Wednesday evening in the home of Miss Olive Fern Sanford, Wilmington avenue.

Cards were enjoyed and winners were Dorothy Alborn and LaGene McEntire. Refreshments were served and the hostess' mother, Mrs. Art Sanford, aided.

November 20, members will meet with Dorothy J. Porter, Laurel boulevard.

L. O. L. No. 129

Members of the L. O. L. No. 129 will have election of officers Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Trades and Labor Assembly hall. A social hour will ensue.

Seniors To Present Play At Plaingrove School, November 8

"Look Who's Here," a three-act comedy will be presented by the seniors of Plaingrove township high school, on Friday evening, November 8.

Rehearsals are now in progress by the senior class. The play deals with the troubles of a young couple who are forced to hide the knowledge of their marriage from an old maid aunt of the husband, if he expects to receive any financial aid from her in the future.

The odd situations the young couple find themselves, have been woven into a highly entertaining program.

Philadelphia Is In Limelight As Jitterbug Center

Jive Joint Serves Nothing Stronger Than Malted Milk

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA — Staid Philadelphia, with its Quaker ancestry and colonial heritage, is fast becoming the jitterbug center of these United States.

According to the local fraternity of rug cutters, the City of Brotherly Love is definitely hep to jive. Furthermore, the bugs brand as a base canard the report that this town is a cemetery with lights.

Although this oldie has been kicked around the vaudeville circuits for the past 30 years, the savants of swing claim that Philadelphia had the original nickel-in-the-slot dance place. Juke boxes (coin-operated record machines) were common here long before they spread over the country like locusts, they aver.

Out at the "Topper", where a dime will get you past the door and a soda is the strongest drink served, they boast of two very unusual alligators. One is shagging Jackie Barnes, who only has one foot, and the other is five-year-old Arlene Zibelman, whose repertoire is complete.

In between boogie-woogies, a committee at the "Topper" has drawn up a set of rules for newcomers to the cult. A brief glance shows that jitterbugs never drink intoxicating beverages—only malted milk. Male cookies wear white and brown shoes, striped socks, peg-top pants and a pork pie hat, while the girls sport swing skirts, white and brown shoes with socks to match. They jitter at least 15 hours a week. They don't spend more than 30 cents on a date, nor do they dance to classical music unless swingopated.

SAYS FRIGHTENED SPEAKERS MAKE BETTER SPEECHES

(International News Service)

WACO, Tex. — Do your knees knock together when you get up to make a speech?

Don't worry about it, says Dr. Iva Cox Gardner, head of the Baylor University psychology department—you'll probably make a better speech because you're scared.

Any emotional drive, even fear, makes for a better, more convincing talk, she told a Waco speech class. "If you are frightened a bit you'll be on your toes resolved to make a better speech," she counselled. "But don't allow your emotions to get control of your intellect."

NEW SANITORIUM FOR TUBERCULOSIS IS DEDICATED

(International News Service)

BOONEVILE, Ark., Aug. 5—One man who would like to see the 25 newly-completed buildings of the State Tuberculosis Sanitorium is the late Leo E. Nyberg, their designer, who gave his life that tuberculars like himself could be cured and "live to help their fellow men."

Nyberg, Helena, state legislator and newspaperman, conceived the new project while a patient at the old sanitorium. He outlined plans for the buildings, induced the governor to include them in a call for a special session, and guided the program through the state legislature.

HOUND DOG DIES ON EVE OF AWARD FROM GOVERNOR

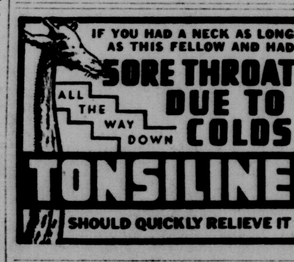

(International News Service)

AUGUSTA, Me.—The wildlife of Maine has lost a faithful protector. For thirteen years, Jack, an old hound dog, owned by Game Warden Supervisor Roy Gray, stalked bobcats—the worst enemy of deer and other game life. More than 75 of the vicious 'cats fell before the persistent hound.

And there was a touch of irony, too, in the death of the dog. Governor Lewis O. Barrows sent an invitation to Gray to take a trip from Stratton to the capital with Jack. The governor intended to give the dog a citation in recognition of his services.

The award was to have been made a week from the day Jack was found dead of distemper.

Shenango-Union Clash On Friday

Class B Headliner On Shenango Field Starts At 2:00 O'Clock

LOCAL TEAMS PRIMED FOR WEEK-END GAMES

Imbued with winning spirit and confidence, Shenango Township and Union Township High gridsmen eagerly await their perennial clash Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock on Shenango field.

The game, a crucial one so far as the County Class B championship is concerned, figures to lure the largest gallery of the season. Reports from the local schools indicate that the elevens will be backed up 100%.

Coach John Susko, Union tutor, in commenting about the game today said:

"My boys are in excellent condition. They are tops in spirit. Here's one game they want to win."

Union's chances of victory hinge on a rather speedy backfield headed by Viton and Jaskolka. Kline and Ringbloom round out a well balanced ball-toting brigade. The Scotland Laners' line has shown steady improvement.

PROBABLE LINEUP

Shenango		Union
Pitzer	L.E.	Brown
Colvert	L.T.	Boron
Sovesky	L.G.	Womer
Staph	C.	Carpenter
Semansky	R.G.	Sniezek
Druschel	R.T.	Allen
Frengel	R.E.	Taylor
Denny	Q.	Viton
Stollica	L.H.	Kline
Majeski	R.H.	Jaskolka
O'Neil	F.	Ringbloom

Frank Nocera, pilot of the East New Castle force, smiled when he reported his aggregation in good condition for a change. Throughout the season, Shenango has been plagued by the injury bugaboo.

Quarterback Denny spearheads one of the the finest Shenango teams in several seasons. Stolitica, Majeski and O'Neil complete an exceedingly talented all-handling quartet. Shenango's line is packed with power.

Last season, the rivals fought a scoreless tie in a continuous drizzle.

Union's chances for the Class B coronet received a setback in the way of a 20-0 loss administered by Bessemer. A triumph tomorrow would leave Union with an outside chance of sharing the toga.

Shenango Township makes its first bid for the laurel. Bowling over Union would leave Bessemer the only remaining obstacle enroute to the title.

ADAMS-HURRICANE

The gallery at Taggart Stadium, Friday evening, will see one of the beefiest clubs in scholastic circles when John Adams (Cleveland) trots onto the sod for its first battle with New Castle High, at 8 o'clock

The Ohioans romped off the gridiron with the Cleveland High championship in '39.

TITANS-THIEL

Two bitter grid rivals, Westminster and Thiel College stage their perennial battle on Saturday afternoon at New Wilmington.

Following intensive drills staged during the past few days, both squads are reportedly in good condition.

The game should produce plenty of thrills.

BESSEMER AWAY

Their spirits undaunted despite the loss of two stars who were hurt recently, Bessemer High gridders are primed for their annual clash with Scienceville High, Saturday afternoon at Youngstown.

Frank Mediate and Lawrence Rich, ranged as two of the most capable hands on the squad, were shelved for the season by injuries recently.

Coach Capezzuti feels certain his somewhat crippled eleven will give the Ohioans plenty of trouble.

Thiel Will Play At Westminster

Final Home Game For Titans At New Wilmington On Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 24.—In their final home game of the 1940 season, the Westminster Titans meet the Thiel eleven here this Saturday, in a Dads' day game, featuring the return to the campus of several hundred parents.

Since the two colleges have not met the same teams this year, comparisons in strength are difficult. Westminster's record, off to a good start with a 26-0 victory over Edinboro, hit the goose-egg column in the next four games, with decisive losses against West Virginia 47-0, Youngstown 44-0, Slippery Rock 27-0 and Bethany 9-0.

Thiel has victories over Clarion 12-0 and Alliance 25-0, and a defeat by the powerful Juniata Indians 18-0.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

In addition to the Carter-Moran bout, the Jefferson A. C. through Matchmaker Tom Leach, has composed six other good prospective bouts for Monday as follows: Mike Wukas, Aliquippa, vs. Nick Delmark, Youngstown, 145; Steve Kowalik, McKees Rocks, vs. Frankie Regal, Slippery Rock Teachers college, 147; Toughie Emerick, McKeesport, vs. Jack Zagosky, Warren, 147; Tommy Broken, Warren, vs. Eddie Heck, McKees Rocks; Louis Carkido, Youngstown, vs. Charlie Broden, McKeesport, 124. An opponent is also being sought for Billy Reale of Castlewood. It is likely Russell Baxter of this city will also fight.

Fritzie Zivic, welterweight champion, and Al Davis are conferring today in New York, relative to their proposed bout in that city, November 15. The distance will be decided upon. . . . Bethany college has created a game reserve on land in the West Virginia Panhandle. . . . Speedy La Rance, 182, Canada, threw Tex O'Riley, 182, Texas, in 31.22 at Pittsburgh last night before a $400 crowd.

Can't Wait is in and Fenelon is out of the Pimlico Special, November 1, according to a Baltimore report. The Pimlico Special is the Maryland Jockey club's "Horse of the Year" event. Fenelon was removed from the entries because of an injury.

Moose Teams Are Banqueted

Championship Golf Team And Baseball Team Honored Wednesday Evening

TROPHIES ARE GIVEN PLAYERS

Members of the championship Moose golf team, which won the Sylvan Heights golf league title last summer, and the strong Moose baseball team, which was runner up in the second half of the race in the City Baseball league, were honored by New Castle Lodge No. 51, L. O. O. M. in the dining room of the Moose club last evening, when a splendid banquet was arranged in their honor.

Walter L. Ringer, past governor of the Moose lodge, who is chairman of the athletic committee, presented Frank Summers as toastmaster of the evening, who presided in a pleasing style.

Summers called upon Audley "Phizz" Rodenbaugh, coach and manager of the baseball team, who presented the baseball squad, which was composed of: Catchers, Red Wrona, Dom Rosanna and Chuck Scaglione; pitchers, Johnny Carik, Ernest McClymonds, George Hall, Ralph Fennick, "Tink" Campbell and Ralph Johns; infielders, Bob Muse, Chabak, Fruitt, Annarella and Ted Kolcz, and outfielders, Ducky Guinagh, Mike Mash, Marshall and Sam Chill

Mike Lombardo, captain of the golf team, was then presented and he introduced the members of the golf team, Johnny Babs, Carl McIltrot, Hackett Kennedy, Frank Summers and Clements, three of the team being unable to be present, Tobe Fenati, John Ferry and Joe Mazzari. Fenati is in New York studying voice

Other speakers included Marty Kovach of Ellwood City, vice president of the golf league; Lee Starr, secretary and treasurer of the golf league, and Geno Veri. Veri, in behalf of the league, presented the beautiful trophy, which was the handiwork of Russ Forney and was donated to the league by him. Veri also presented medals from the league to each of the players on the winning team.

The trophy was presented by Capt. Lombardo to Governor James L. Gibson of New Castle Lodge No. 51, and it will be kept on display in the Moose Home.

Others who spoke included Art Prioletti of the golf league, Charles E. Allen, Ray Wallace, W. A. Semler, commissioner of the city league, and John Trent, official scorer of the Moose team.

Chairman Ringer of the sports committee introduced the members of the committee, which has done much to promote winning athletic teams at the Moose club. On this committee are Mike Lombardo, Tom Maiella, Fred Druschel, Red Vogan and Sam Woods.

Governor James L. Gibson spoke briefly and praised the efforts of the athletic committee and the teams which represented the lodge. He introduced the officers present, which included Junior Governor Harold Shaffer, Prelate Sam Davis, Secretary Perry A. McFarland; James E. Thomas, chairman of the house committee, and George Shook, L. Campbell of the house committee, and trustee, Pat Kearns.

Baseball Champs Will Be Honored

South Hills, winners of the City-County Independent Baseball league championship, will be honored tonight in the Slavish hall, Moravia street.

Starting at 5, the popular athletes will be feted. The program will end with a big dance.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

A rumor making the district rounds has a somewhat comical angle attached to it. Butler High has been shifted to a new and tougher loop because the Soapminers are supposedly a bit too good for Section III. We invite anyone to show us a stiffer section than the one housing Aliquippa, Ellwood City, New Castle, Ambridge, Beaver Falls and New Brighton. Anyhow, it's good for a chuckle. . . .

Great things are expected of Charles Gustafon, 227 Fairmont avenue, who is a member of Taylor University's cross country team. The local athlete is a freshman in the Upland, Ind., institution. . . . Union and Bessemer grid reserves fought a 0-0 draw recently. The tiff was loaded with action and thrills, an informant writes in. . . .

During the recent Richmond-George Washington game, G. W. used 12 men during one of the kickoffs. No one on the field or in the stadium knew the difference until several plays had elapsed. . . . The Georgia-Kentucky game, Friday night in Athens, Ga., marks Georgia's first fracas under the lamps. . . .

Charley Bicknell, triple-threat sophomore back at the University of Portland, is a former mayor of Boys' Town, Neb. . . .

As football swings past the half way mark, ledgers show that eight of Pennsylvania's 50-odd colleges and universities have clean slates. Pennsylvania, Lafayette and Penn State, in the upper bracket, and Franklin & Marshall, Moravian, Indiana State, East Stroudsburg and Millersville Teachers, in the lower section, round out the circle. . . .

Plan To Stock Larger Fish In State Streams

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24. — Pennsylvania anglers will be provided with better sport next year.

At least that is the supposition today of the state fish commission which has announced that small fish will no longer be stocked in the game waters of the state.

"We're going to stock larger and stronger fish," Commissioner C. A. French declared, adding that he believed better fishing would be the result.

The fingering and "fry" fish stocked in previous years in Pennsylvania streams gradually will be eliminated, it was stated.

Replacing the old method, French declared that the commission in the future would hold new broods in the hatcheries until legal or near legal size.

"You're bound to have better fishing result," French asserted.

Clevelanders May Prove Tough Foe

New Castle's speedy "Red Hurricane" football team may run into a tough foe here Friday night in John Adams high of Cleveland team, at Taggart stadium. The kickoff is set for 8 o'clock.

It will mark the first time in New Castle high grid history that a team from Cleveland has been on the local card. Little is known of the John Adams team here outside of the fact that they will bring a team here that will outweigh the sons of Pa Newc aplenty. The Cleveland line will average close to 186 pounds, quite a weight for a high school team. The backfield will average close to 162.

New Castle Ready

The New Castle team, undefeated in seven games to date, but tied by Butler in the second game, will be out gunning for its sixth straight win of the season. Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh has been drilling the boys all week on pass defense, this being the only weakness that the locals have shown this year.

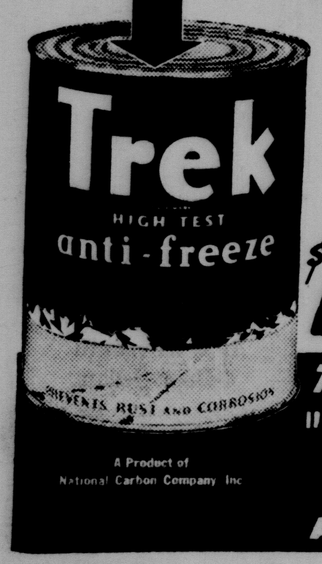

The starting lineup will have but one new face this week. Parou was pretty badly used up in the Washington game and may not be at right end when the kickoff occurs. Either Tomalello or Pugh will get the nod for the job.

A special singing program of 120 girls and boys voices will be staged between halves of the game here tomorrow night. Robert Duff, choral director at New Castle high, will have charge of the patriotic singing.

NEW CASTLE RIFLE CLUB WILL MEET

The New Castle Rifle club will have a special meeting tonight at the Cathedral range at 8 o'clock, it was announced today.

MORAN BELIEVES HE WILL DEFEAT CARTER MONDAY

Although Grover Carter of Aliquippa scored a technical knockout over Frankie Moran of this city in Ellwood City recently, the local fighter believes he will win by a "kayo" when the pair meet in The Arena, Monday.

"I made an error backing away from Carter. When I leaned o'er the ropes I couldn't get up my left to guard his right hand his first punch to the jaw shook me up," Moran said.

"I couldn't pull myself together before he smashed me again and I guess," added Moran, "from then on it was all Carter. However, Grover will be on the receiving end Monday."

The foregoing obviously shows that Frankie is brimful of confidence. Until the fight at Ellwood City only two hereabouts had an edge on him in fights. They were Smokey Robinson and Mike Raffa, the latter now a pro'.

Carter Has Wallop

Moran fully knows that fame in the fight game is fickle. He also realizes that one may be a hero today and a "bum" tomorrow and he doesn't want to be placed in the last named fistic classification.

However, Carter, in training at Aliquippa, believes that Moran is just another fighter along the pugilistic row and further, owns the belief he'll slam out Frankie in jig time when they meet again.

Every local fighter in the city will be on the fight calendar Monday. In fact, Monday's show should be one of the best in months and with interest keen the Arena no doubt will be crowded to the doors.

TO BOWL AT BUTLER

Three teams of bowlers representing New Castle Lodge 51, Loyal Order of Moose, will oppose Butler Moose bowlers in the first of a series of ten-pin matches at Butler Sunday, October 27, Walter L. Ringer, chairman of the lodge sports committee, announced today.

Grid Changes Are Suggested

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Three new rules adopted by the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associatians probably will contribute more to the safety of football players than any rule changes in several years, Alfred E. Parker of Berkley, Calif., said in the magazine Hygeia today.

The rule changes listed by Parker were:

1. Extension of the half time rest period from 15 to 18 minutes, with provision for a three minute warmup period before the beginning of the second half. Parker said a study showed many football injuries were suffered early in the third quarter, before the players were properly loosened up after their rest.

2. Heavier penalties for fouls, such as roughing, which will cut down the number of deliberate infractions.

3. Permission for officials to stop a play immediately when there is an illegal shift. This rule will prevent injuries which sometimes occur on the running off of such plays.

Junior Highs Battle Today

George Washington and Ben Franklin Junior high grid machines are battling this afternoon at Taggart stadium at 3:30 o'clock. The winner will be crowned the city junior high champs for 1940.

Washington was highly favored to defeat the East Siders at game time today. The Washington high record this year is impressive. Franklin high has not won a game this year, tieing every team that they have played.

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Oct. 24.—A six-room dwelling occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Summerville on the Blacktown-Grove City road, was destroyed by fire early today.

Everything in the house except the Summerville's clothing was destroyed. Mrs. Summerville told firemen that the blaze started in the kitchen about 5 a. m. She said she built a fire in the kitchen stove and returned to bed. Shortly thereafter she discovered the fire. The East End department answered the alarm.

Bears Hope To Scalp Indians

The Wabash Bears football team of Mahoningtown will go to Aliquippa Sunday to battle the Aliquippa Indians at 2:30 o'clock at the Aliquippa high field.

The Bears were the only team to defeat the Indians last year at Aliquippa. The valley team will be out for revenge. The Wabashers will have a crackerjack lineup available for the game. Willie Domenick, president of the Bears organization and business manager of the team, is trying to secure a good attraction for the E. & A. field for Sunday, November 3.

Workouts are being held each day at the E. & A. grounds at 4:30 o'clock.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL

Several football fans have taken time to write in and give their ideas as to the teams they would like to see our team play . . . as time permits we will pass along these suggestions . . . maybe you will get an idea.

This suggestion has Massillon for its theme:

1. Good coached team, so good game.
2. Because it seems N. C. showed the white flag when they couldn't win them all. People show their real colors or guts when they lose not win.
3. Best game of year for drawing crowd so we can get ATHLETIC COUNCIL OUT of RED.

Here is a request for the local team to play Farrell Senior High School team . . . the writer says that quite a few arguments have arisen about the outcome if these two teams ever played . . . So there we have two ideas about football and Ne-Ca-Hi.

Tomorrow night at the game the High Schoo! Band will put on a show between halves that will really be worth while seeing . . . also at that time singing will be in vogue . . . We gave you the words to "God Bless America" last night and tonight we give you the words for "I Am An American" . . . We hope that you will join in and sing:

On the street, in the home, In a crowd, or alone
Shout! Wherever you may be,
I AM AN AMERICAN,—I am, from the heart of me.
Rich or poor, young or old, Let this message be told,
Shout! Wherever you may be,
I AM AN AMERICAN,—I'm proud of my liberty—
In the fact'ry, in the mill, Thru' each valley, from each hill,
Raise your voice and give America a thrill!
On the farms, in the schools, Let's have one set of rules,—
Shout! Wherever you may be,—
I AM AN AMERICAN,—I am ev'ry part of me.*

From Alaska's snowy peaks, To the Southland's muddy creeks,
Listen in, because America now speaks!

(Repeat the first part and finish the song at the *)
Congratulations Dr. Robert Brown on your engagement!

Stock Market Is Irregular

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The stock market's advance was checked today after a further irregular rise at the start, with the majority of pivotal issues slipping fractionally under last night's closing levels.

While changes were narrow in most instances, only a handful of stocks were able to buck the trend for net gains. Trading was moderately active in the first hour, but slowed later.

Ellwood Will Meet Aliquippa Saturday

Wolverines Expect To Find Steelers Tough Opponents In Game Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—Ellwood City high school's constantly improving football machine, plays host to a formidable opponent when they meet the Aliquippa Steelers on the Ellwood gridiron Saturday afternoon.

Last Saturday, Aliquippa eliminated Ambridge from the WPIAL Class A A race by holding the Rubenstein eleven to a scoreless deadlock, matching Ellwood's feat against Midland. The Lippe men have been defeated by Butler and Midland but holding the Bridgers to a scoreless tie, though badly outplayed, overshadows such past performances and indicates that the Wolverines will be in for a tough afternoon next Saturday.

The Wolverines came out of the Midland game in excellent shape with no new cripples and with "Hank" Seetch, right end, Nick Dudick, right tackle, and Carl Lordo, fullback, rounded into shape. All the players with the single exception of quarterback Paul Cartwright should be available for service Saturday.

In yesterday's practice drills, Coaches Croft and Gills divided the squad. The backfield men drilled on passes and the linemen on blocking and charging. Today the squad will go through a dummy scrimmage, practice on pass defense and then go through a short scrimmage.

ACE HIGH CLUB MEETS IN FRISCO

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24—Mrs. Emmet Jolley, of Frisco, was the charming hostess to the Ace High club last evening at her home.

At the two tables of "500" Mrs. Richard Blank placed high, Mrs. John Eicholtz, second and Mrs. John Stephenson received the traveling prize.

Mrs. Blank assisted the hostess in serving the lunch at a timely hour.

The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Frank Peffer, of Frisco.

MOVIES OF SCOUTS

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—Motion pictures taken during the camping season at Camp Thompson this year and also shots of the Ellwood-Sharpsville and Ellwood-Monaca football games will be shown this evening at the Boy Scout court of honor to be held in the Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m.

Scouts entitled to receive awards are requested to be present. The Court of Honor will be open to the public.

Father Dies In Butler Hospital

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—Alexander C. Hutchinson, 88, father of three sons and two daughters, died last night in the Butler county hospital following a long illness.

Mr. Hutchinson has long been a resident of Butler. He had been living on Center avenue. Among his survivors are his wife and three sons, Oscar B., Victor R. and Roscoe. His one daughter, Marie, lives in Youngstown, his other daughter, Rose, in Ellwood City.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock from the W. D. Porter funeral home. Burial will take place in the Concord cemetery, in Butler county.

Lee Whitmire, Jr. Addresses Phalanx

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—Guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Phalanx last evening was Lee Whitmire, Jr., senior at Geneva College.

Following the brief business meeting Mr. Whitmire talked to the group concerning organization, their types, purposes and goals. His speech was well received. The program was held in connection with the attempt of the Phalanx to devote alternate meetings to a planned program rather than a business meeting.

A discussion of the Boys' club project which opened last Friday night was also held.

A social time with card games was then enjoyed. Clair McDivitt and his committee were in charge of serving the lunch.

Democrats Hear Judge Musmanno

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—Approximately 400 Democrats rallied last night at the Lincoln high school auditorium to hear the speech of Judge Michael Musmanno of Allegheny county.

The speech made by Francis Kelly, lieutenant governor of Massachusetts was also well received. Several local candidates including Clyde Buzard, candidate for the state legislature from the second district; Peter Reising, candidate for the U. S. Congress from this district and M. K. McQuiddy, candidate for state senator, were introduced.

Later in the evening President Roosevelt's radio address was tuned in over the public address system at the rally.

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—Rev. Alice Clifton, preacher and leader of evangelistic party from Ruffsdale, Pa., is conducting special revival services each night at the Wurtemburg Methodist church. She is accompanied by several others, who provide special music for the meetings.

Evangelists Bring Message Nightly

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—A large crowd attended the evangelistic services in the Wurtemburg Methodist church last night.

Four of the evangelistic troupe from Ruffsdale, Pa., were present. Rev. Alice Clifton brought the message on the subject, "Prepare to Meet Your God".

A solo was sung by Miss Zola King. Rev. Alice Clifton and her husband, Rev. C. F. Clifton, sang a duet. Rev. C. F. Clifton also sang a solo. Musical accompanist was Miss Virginia Clemenson.

Services are being held every evening except Saturday, at 7:45 p. m., until November 3.

Club Decorates Hall For Costume Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—In the B. V. M. hall decorated gayly in orange and black, the annual hallowe'en party of the members and friends of the Little Flower club was held.

About 40 gathered for dancing and games. Lunch was served at long candlelit tables.

The committee in charge of the event included: Chairmen, Victoria Massara, Alviva Tavern, Lena Napalitano, Jennie Gagni, Rose Iurillo, and Rose DeMauro. Winning prizes for costumes were: Helen Minnocci, Jean O'Tusa, Dolly DeNome and Helen Gattuso.

A business meeting will be held by the group Tuesday, October 29.

Rev. Stevenson Speaks To Society

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—The First Presbyterian Women's Missionary society yesterday met for all-day sewing at 9 a. m. An executive meeting was held at 1:30 p. m., followed by the regular business meeting.

After the usual reports had been given, Rev. A. M. Stevenson spoke to the group concerning their responsibility in keeping "The Holy Day."

The society is busy collecting new toys for Christmas boxes. The sewing guild is also rushing its work in order that their work may be completed in time for Christmas. A box of second-hand clothes will be packed in addition.

Mrs. Thomas Haynes gave the highlights of the Presbyterial meeting she had attended.

The next meeting, the annual thank-offering meeting, has been advanced one week because of Thanksgiving. It will be held November 20 instead of November 27. The meeting will open with a tureen dinner at 1 o'clock. Presbyterial officers, Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Jenkins, of New Castle, will be guest speakers on this occasion.

Churches Continue In Joint Revival

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 24.—The combined revival service of the North Sewickley Presbyterian and Providence Baptist churches was well attended last evening as the Rev. E. A. Driggers brought a stirring message before his audience, chosing as his theme "Love".

Musical features included a duet by Misses Betty and Ella Mae Ort of New Castle, a vocal solo by Mrs. Clarence Safreed and also one by Miss Doris Cable.

Stalin's Article Arouses Wrath Of Nazis, Report

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 24.—An Exchange Telegraph (British) dispatch from Zurich said today that an article by Soviet Dictator Josef Stalin, allegedly asserting that the "coming resolution in Germany . . . will have Russia behind it," has aroused the wrath of the Nazis.

According to the dispatch, the article appeared in the newspaper Tarybu Lietuva, official Soviet organ in Lithuania and described the tactics of the Russian Communist army.

Exchange Telegraph quoted the article as stating:

"The coming revolution, for instance, in Germany will have a better background than the Communist resolution which began during the World war, for it will have Russia behind it."

The case of Clara Headland, of Butler County, against George Schuster and the Midwest Haulers went to the jury Wednesday at noon after having been on trial since Monday morning. The case was one in which the plaintiff asked heavy damages for injuries received June 20, 1939, on the Harlansburg road when her car collided with a truck of the defendants.

The plaintiff averred that her eyesight was permanently injured and that she was unable to continue her work of decorating pottery. A woman detective testified that several weeks ago she had gone into the place of business of the plaintiff and that she (the plaintiff) had offered to paint some pottery the detective looked at.

Dr. Alon W. Shewman testified that the plaintiff's eyes were not seriously impaired. The case was a hard fought one.

In court room number one the case of Edith Greene and Howard P. Greene against David J. Williams was taken up. The plaintiffs claim injuries while riding in the car of the defendant on August 10, 1939, on the Ellwood City-Wurtemburg road. They claim that Mrs. Greene was injured and ask damages.

In the office of Register and Recorder Orville Potter the following wills have been probated:

The estate of Maude E. Paden Taylor, late of North Beaver township goes to her husband.

The estate of Thomas McLaughlin late of Ellwood City consists of life insurance policies. These go to daughters, Mrs. Mary Priesel, Mrs. W. P. Herr, Mrs. Richard Tillia and Emma McLaughlin.

The estate of Florence A. Black, late of New Castle, goes to her six children.

The estate of Mary K. Lehberger, late of New Castle, is divided. To an adopted daughter, Philomena Lehberger Berger $150, balance to George F. and Rosalia Lehberger.

The estate of Mary L. Drumm, late of New Castle, goes one-half to her son, Leon A. Drumm, and one-half to a daughter, Helen Esther Drumm Brenner.

The estate of Mary J. Roberts, late of Hickory township, is divided. Personal effects go to Bertha Lorenz and the interest in the homestead of the mother, Mrs. Margaret Roberts to Harry E. Roberts. The balance goes to Joseph L. Pitzer.

The estate of Martha Jane Edmunds, late of New Castle, goes to two daughters, Jane and Dorothy Edmunds.

The estate of James E. Wilcox, late of New Castle, goes to his wife, Harriet Emma Wilcox, and at her death to the children.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Splendid Cough Remedy Easily Mixed at Home

It's So Easy! Makes a Big Saving. No Cooking.

To get quick and satisfying relief from coughs due to colds, mix your own remedy at home. Once tried, you'll never be without it in your home, and it's so simple and easy.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. A child could do it. No cooking needed.

Then get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. This is a compound containing Norway Pine and palatable guaiacol, in concentrated form, well-known for its prompt action on throat and bronchial membranes.

Put the Pinex into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. Thus you make a full pint of really splendid medicine and you get about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and children love its pleasant taste.

And for quick, blessed relief, it is amazing. You can feel it take hold in a way that means business. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and eases the soreness. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep. Just try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.
